YOUNG CREATIVES GRANT
2019 FUNDING PLAN

All of the Above Hip Hop Academy
Project: All of the Above Hip Hop Academy will present seven $200 scholarships (8 weeks) to students in middle and high school to attend the B.A.R.S. (Beats and Rhymes Sessions) program at Reach Art Studio in Lansing, MI between October 1 2018 and June 30, 2019. The B.A.R.S. program introduces high school age students to the history, culture and art of Hip Hop by integrating extensive training, mentoring and education with state-of-the art beatmaking technology.

Award: $1,500

All-of-us Express Children's Theatre
Project: All-of-us Express Children's Theatre will present 10-20 $55-$150 scholarships to students aged 6 to 17 to participate in children's theatre rehearsals and performances or summer camps to take place between Oct 1, 2018 and August 4, 2019 at Hannah Community Center and located in East Lansing, Michigan; and Riverwalk Theatre in Lansing Michigan.

Award: $1,500

Lansing Art Gallery & Education Center
Project: Lansing Art Gallery's 2019 Spring Break and Summer Art Camps will provide five weeks of visual arts experiences for students age 7-12. Sessions are led by professional artists and focus on creativity, technique, critique, and vocabulary. Lansing Art Gallery will provide scholarships, based on financial need in the amount of $1,500 for the attendance of half-day or full-day camps. Sessions are held Monday through Friday and will take place between April 1 and August 16, 2019. Activities will take place at Lansing Art Gallery located in downtown Lansing at 119 North Washington Square.

Award: $1,500

Michigan State University Community Music School
Project: The MSU Community Music School will award $1,500 in financial assistance to students with need, ages 5-17 years old, to attend one of CMS's four summer camps between June 13 and August 9, 2019. All camps take place on the MSU campus, at CMS. CMS would award approximately 15-20 student scholarships at approximately $100 each with this award.

Award: $1,500

REACH Studio Art Center
Project: REACH Studio Art Center will implement 2 free summer neighborhood art camps in 2019 for youth ages 6 to 13, led by experienced REACH teaching artists and assistants. The two, 4-day camps taking place at REACH in REO Town, Lansing Michigan, will provide up to 50 youth from the low income neighborhoods immediately surrounding REACH, with engaging art experiences. A variety of art media such as painting, sculpting, print-making, and more will be employed to exercise imaginations, inspire creativity, and develop self-agency.

Award: $1,500

Total 2018 Awards: $7,500