YOUNG CREATIVES GRANT
2018 FUNDING PLAN

Lansing Art Gallery
Project: Lansing Art Gallery & Education Center's 2018 Spring Break and Summer Art Camps will provide five weeks of visual arts experiences for students ages 7 - 12. Sessions are led by professional artists and focus on creativity, technique, critique, and vocabulary. We will provide scholarships, based on financial need, in the amount of $1,500 for the attendance of half-day or full-day camps. Sessions are held Monday through Friday and will take place between April 2 and August 10, 2018. Activities will take place at Lansing Art Gallery located in downtown Lansing at 119 North Washington Square.

Award: $1,500

MSU Community Music School
Project: The MSU Community Music School will award $1,500 in financial assistance to students, ages 5-17 years old, with need to attend one of CMS' summer music camps held between June 14 and August 10, 2018. All camps take place on the MSU campus, either at CMS or at the College of Music and Music Practice Buildings.

Award: $1,500

Native American Arts and Crafts Council
Project: The Native American Arts and Crafts Council will conduct a Cultural Education Day on June 1, 2017. Students from area school districts will be invited to participate in a series of stations that describe various aspects of Native American Life. They will have a Traditional Native American village, Story Teller, Speakers on Medicines and Herbs, Geology, Fishing, Crafts, Drumming and Dancing. They will be inviting not only the Lansing School District and home school students, this year they will increase out audience to include the local charter and perochial schools, Holt and East Lansing.

Award: $1,500

Red Cedar Writing Project
Project: Red Cedar Writing Project will present six $225 scholarships to students aged 5 to 14 and one $125 half day scholarship to attend one-week summer writing camps to take place between June 1, 2018 and July 31, 2018 at Michigan State University located in East Lansing, Michigan.

Award: $1,475

Total 2018 Awards: $5,975