Little Green Rabbit allergen labeling

ENGLISH

The Little Green Rabbit allergen overview provides information about which allergens are included the meals we serve. In addition, any undesirable ingredients such as garlic and onions are also marked. It is also clear whether the products are vegetarian or vegan.

The list of allergens refers to the 14 main triggers of allergic food reactions. They are listed if the above-mentioned ingredients are contained in the final foodstuff. Both in the production and in the preparation of our products, ingredients are processed that may contain the 14 main allergens.

Labeled allergens:

"Cross contacts"

Allergen labelling only refers to ingredients that have been intentionally used in food production.

We cannot completely rule out unintentional and technically unavoidable contamination of products that do not contain this allergen as an ingredient.

The so-called cross-contaminations by our suppliers are not listed in the table.
