CONDITIONS OF PARTICIPATION

GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS - STEADFORCE ADVENT CALENDAR

1. Subject of the conditions of participation and organizer

These conditions of participation regulate the participation in the competition. The description and the process of the competition take place within the framework of the campaign on the homepage of the organizer. The organizer of the competition is Steadforce GmbH, Westendstraße 193, 80686 Munich, Germany. By participating in the competition, these conditions of participation are accepted.

2. Participation

The participation in the competition of Steadforce, hereinafter called organizer, is free of charge and exclusively based on these conditions of participation. In order to participate in the competition, it is necessary to fill in and send the participation form. Participation is only possible within the participation period. Entries received after the closing date will not be considered in the draw.

3. Participation eligibility

Natural persons who have reached the age of 18 are eligible to participate. Participation is not restricted to customers of the organizer and is not dependent on the purchase of goods or services. Should a participant be restricted in his legal capacity, the consent of his legal representative is required. Not eligible to participate in the competition are all persons and employees of the organizer involved in the conception and implementation of the competition as well as their relatives. Participation with fake identities or with identities of third parties is not permitted. The organizer reserves the right, at its own discretion, to exclude persons from participation if there are justified reasons. Such reasons exist in particular in the case of: - manipulation in connection with access to the competition or its implementation - violations of these conditions of participation - unfair actions - or false or misleading information in connection with participation in the competition. If the excluded participant is a winner who has already been drawn, the prize may be subsequently revoked.

4. Winnings, notification of winnings and delivery of the winnings

The winning of this competition consists of several individual prizes, which will be made available to the winners between December 01 and 24 as part of the Steadforce Advent Calendar. Per day only one prize per person is possible.
The winners will be selected on 28.12.2022 as part of a draw based on the random principle among all participants. If the competition is linked to a task, only those participants who have completed the task correctly will be included in the draw.
The winners will be informed about the prize in a timely manner via a separate e-mail. The prize will be handed over exclusively to the participant who has won or to the legal representative of the legally incompetent participant.
An exchange, transfer or cash payment of the prize is not possible.
Any costs incurred for shipping the prizes will be borne by the organizer. The risk is transferred to the participant when the prize is handed over to a carrier. The organizer is not responsible for delivery damages.
If the participant who has won does not respond after two requests within a period of 3 weeks, the claim to the prize expires. In this case, the organizer is entitled to conduct a substitute draw and then transfer the prize to another participant. If circumstances occur for which the organizer is not responsible, the respective participant who has won shall accept an appropriate substitute prize.

5. Closing of the competition

The organizer reserves the right to prematurely terminate the competition in whole or in part or to change its course at any time, even without meeting deadlines and without prior notice or notification of reasons, if it is not possible for technical reasons (e.g. computer virus, manipulation or errors in software/hardware) or legal reasons to guarantee proper and scheduled execution of the competition.

6. Data protection

Participation in the competition requires the provision of personal data (first and surname, e-mail and postal address). The participant assures that the personal data provided - in particular first name, surname, e-mail address, postal address and age - are true and correct. The organizer is responsible for the collection, processing and use of personal data of the participants. The organizer will use the participant's personal data and other personal data only in accordance with the legal provisions of data protection law. The organizer points out that all personal data of the participant will neither be passed on to third parties nor given to them for use without consent.
The organizer will only save, process and use the information to the extent that this is necessary for the implementation of the competition or if the participant has given his/her consent.

7. Applicable law

Questions and complaints concerning the competition should be addressed to the organizer. The competition of the organizer is exclusively subject to the law of the Federal Republic of Germany. The legal recourse is excluded.

8. Salvatorian clause

If any provision of these Terms and Conditions of Participation is or becomes invalid in whole or in part, this shall not affect the validity of the rest of these Terms and Conditions of Participation. Instead of the invalid provision, the provision permitted by law shall apply that comes closest economically to the meaning and purpose expressed in the invalid provision. The same applies in the event of a loophole in these Terms and Conditions of Participation.

9. Name and address of the external data protection officer (DPO)
