

FOR THE COCKTAILIAN

Retro-minded barware mixes with local finds

A SPIRITED AFFAIR: Inna shrubs in quince and strawberry, right, $15 for 12.7 ounces, Shed, 25 North St., Healdsburg, www.inna.com; whiskey tumblers, $175 for set of eight, La Boutique L'Art Et La Mode, 414 Jackson St., www.laboutique-galerie.com; Reclamation Etchworks hand-etched Variance Set spirit decanters, from $199, www.reclamationetchworks.com, housed in B.Home polo tray in golf leather, $250, Cavalier by Jay Jeffers, 1035 Post St., www.cavaliertools.com. Left: Fortagami Japanese bottle openers, eclipse ($50), crescent ($58), beam ($75), Cavalier by Jay Jeffers, 1035 Post St., www.cavaliertools.com. Below: Use designer Miriam Miri's Honeycomb-inspired acacia honey dipper when it's time for the Bee's Knees and other honey concoctions, $45, Alessi, 424 Sutter St., www.alessi.com.

—A.M.

