

Rayner, Lois "Jean"

Lois Rayner, known to friends as "Jean," passed away on June 5, 2017 at the age of 80 years old.

A native of Baltimore, Maryland, Jean found a home in Brandenburg, Kentucky, after serving as a dedicated wife to Ray Rayner, a Sergeant First Class in the US Army.

Jean served as a volunteer in various organizations, including the American Red Cross and Pets in Need Society (PINS). She enjoyed bowling, playing bunko, and traveling.

She is predeceased by her husband of 55 years, Ray Rayner, daughter Cheryl, sister Patricia (John), niece Donna (Robert), niece Lisa (Patrick), nephew John (Natalie), nephew Stan (Caitlin), niece Sarah (Bryan), and nine great nieces and nephews.

A Celebration of Jean's life will be held at a later date.

Jean will be remembered for the loving devotion to her husband and daughter, generosity, and warm smile.
