

THAILAND-BURMA RAILWAY CENTRE (TBRC)

Kanchanaburi, Thailand.

P.O.W. enquiry

Your relationship to the PoW?
Did he survive the war?

Please complete, to whatever extent possible, the following information about the Veteran:

Surname
Other Names
Nation served with
Date of Birth
Army/Navy/Air Force
Name of his Military Unit
Rank
Any other known information that may be of assistance or interest

ABOUT TBRC:	TBRC is a privately operated, world-class Museum and Research Centre (opened in Kanchanaburi, Thailand in 2003) with a few long-serving Researchers dedicated to ensuring the story of the Thailand-Burma railway (1942 to 1945) is never forgotten and to providing ongoing research to enquiring families for present and future generations.
-------------	---

ABOUT OUR RECORDS:	While our research is ongoing and our records continue to grow, we currently have in excess of 106,000 individuals of all serving nationalities in our database with detailed information added to each record as found. Additionally we have over 95,000 Hospital admission and discharge records now individually identified and digitally recorded. In conjunction with all available Japanese Index Cards and Liberation Questionnaires plus a large number of Books, Personal Accounts, Diaries and Reports, we are in a unique position to offer rapid, comprehensive, factually based and researched information to related family members who we believe have a right to know.
--------------------	---

Please contact TBRC Research Department staff

(In the Research Centre on the second floor of the Museum or by email)

Thailand-Burma Railway Centre (T.B.R.C. Co. Ltd)

73 Jaokunnen Road, Ban Nua, Muang, Kanchanaburi 71000, THAILAND

email: admin@tbrconline.com

website: www.tbrconline.com

All information is gathered during extensive research by TBRC, relying on both official & unofficial sources & with in-depth accumulated personal knowledge. Such information is offered in good faith & while great care is taken in recording facts, absolute accuracy cannot be guaranteed in every instance.