

Kristin Dennehy

Managing Director

25 years in Executive Search

Areas of Expertise:

CEO/C-Suite, Merchandising,
Marketing/Creative, Digital,
Finance/Operations, Human Resources

Her Practice: As a Managing Director at Herbert Mines Associates, Kristin's executive search practice includes clients in omni-channel retail, pureplay, and fashion wholesale businesses across a range of sectors, including apparel, accessories, footwear, home, luxury goods, health/wellness and hardlines.

Kristin has placed C-suite executives in a broad range of disciplines, including Chief Executive, Chief Operating, and Chief Financial Officers, as well as senior Marketing, Merchandising, Design, Stores, and Human Resource executives. She is also active in assignments for the private equity community, finding CEOs for their portfolio companies. In addition, she often partners with founder-led brands on external talent initiatives.

Her Background: Kristin joined Herbert Mines Associates in 1996 as an Associate and was named a Principal in 1999. In 2005, Kristin was promoted to Vice President and in 2008, she was named Managing Director. Prior to joining HMA, she was an Associate with Johnson Smith & Knisely (now a division of TMP Worldwide) in the Fashion and Retail practice. Kristin's experience prior to executive search includes marketing roles in children's book publishing and store line experience in the specialty store industry.

A native of New York, Kristin earned a B.A. in English from William Smith College. She lives on the North Shore of Long Island with her family.