LENNY TERENZI / HEY! MONKEY

SPEAKER ONE-SHEET

Turns out that I am pretty good at telling stories. But then it's easy when they are about your life. After spending so many of my years in the trenches I decided to be an open book and share the truth of the day-to-day happenings in the life of a designer, husband, dad, friend, community builder. Not the social media highlights but real talk. No bullshit portfolio show talks here.

I've spoken at major conferences all over the country, presented to colleges, trade schools, AIGA chapters, AIGA National and all points in between. I have content ready to go but will also tailor content to your audience as needed.
