

The Rainbow Flag Award is a quality assurance framework for all schools and colleges, focusing on LGBT+, (lesbian, gay, bisexual, trans, plus other related identities), inclusion and visibility. The Rainbow Flag Award encourages a whole organisation approach to LGBT+ inclusion, as well as developing strategies to combat homophobic, biphobic and transphobic, (HBT), bullying.

Committing your school or college to the Rainbow Flag Award is a commitment to improve the lives of all the young people that you work with, as well as the LGBT+ young people in your care, those from LGBT+ families, and LGBT+ staff members.

Through a process of self-assessment and ongoing monitoring and feedback, schools and colleges are offered a variety of interventions, helping them meet set standards in each of the following areas:

What this buys you from your Rainbow
Flag Award delivery
organisation:

- Two places on “Including LGBT+ Pupils and Challenging HBT Bullying in Schools” training course – primary and secondary versions available.
- 20% off the cost of all further training, services, resources and products.
- Access to three standardisation processes.
- Some ongoing support via telephone and/or email.

Delivery partners for the Rainbow Flag Award are carefully selected LGBT+ youth organisations. This means that the initiative:

- has a focus on improving the lives of LGBT+ people;
- applies a heritage of skills and expertise around LGBT+ identities from youth and community work practice;
- uses facilitated learning, interactive tools, plus questioning and exploring techniques in the delivery of training and services;
- supports the uniqueness of each school or college engaged with the programme, and encourages them to problem solve their own bespoke solutions, based on knowledge of their context and setting;
- maintains grassroots connections to local youth and LGBT+ communities, helping to link schools and students with their local LGBT+ youth services.
