

I LOVE YOU BECAUSE YOU'RE YOU

© Andreas G Zamenes, Andyland Music (BMI)

I don't care if you sing in tune
Or if your eyes are brown or blue
Believe when I tell you true
I love you because you're you

It's ok if you dance and cheer
Don't be shy because I'm here
You can do those things you do
I love you because you're you

I love to see your smiling eyes
I love the way they shimmer

I love your light that shines inside
It's something you should never hide

I love to see your smiling eyes
I love the way they shimmer
I love your light that shines inside
It's something you should never hide

I don't care if you sing in tune
Or if your eyes are brown or blue
Believe when I tell you true
I love you because you're you

I love you because you're you

I love you because, you're you
