

MARCH FOR SCIENCE

4/14/18 10:00 - 1:00 1025 S. 1st Street

Celebrating Science Around the World and in our Community!

From Antarctica to the North Pole, from under the sea to the top of Mt. Everest, whether alone or alongside thousands, over one million people worldwide have taken to the streets to and each of them has a story to tell.
March for Science –

TELL US YOUR STORY!

Calling all scientists, science enthusiasts, nerds and geeks! We want to hear from you. Tell us your story about why science is important to you.

“Tell me the facts and I’ll learn. Tell me the truth and I’ll believe. But tell me a story and it will live in heart forever.”

– Native American Proverb