

Vocantas to Exhibit its Healthcare IVR Solutions at HIMSS

Health Information Management Systems Event Feb 20 – 24, Orlando

Ottawa, Ontario – February 21, 2011 –Vocantas will be demonstrating its award-winning interactive voice response solutions at the Health Information Management Systems event in Orlando Florida, February 20th to 24th.

“Vocantas shares the HIMSS mission of transforming healthcare through the effective use of information technology and management systems,” said Gary Hannah, President and CEO of Vocantas. “Our IVR solutions have been very successful enabling clinics and hospitals to improve overall patient care and outreach, and we are excited about the opportunity to partner with new healthcare organizations to use this technology to improve the care they offer,” continued Gary.

Vocantas will be displaying its easy-to-use interactive voice response solutions at booth 2675 in the Ontario Pavilion in Hall B at HIMSS. Vocantas’ healthcare product, CallAssure, was developed with and for the healthcare community and is currently deployed in leading hospitals in North America. This IVR solution saves hospitals and clinics money by maximizing existing resources and reducing re-admissions and adverse events. Through patient outreach and follow up CallAssure improves the overall quality of the patient experience.
