

Office

-- Click the buttons in the correct sequence to get the job done. --

Boss: Welcome to Adobe Agency. You're in the ad business, best job in America. We designed the first-ever, state-of-the-art digital banner ad and we need help getting this thing on the net. You're our computer wiz, so get to it!

Boss: D.J. knows where the floppy disk is. Give her a ring!

Generic Fail State:
 Deliver if user click the same wrong option twice.

Boss: That's not right. We need to do things in order!

RIGHT FRAME

Horror Shelf

If clicked at any point

Clerk: Hmm... That's a good one, but not the one you need. Have you checked the other shelf and counter?

Romance Shelf

If clicked at any point

Clerk: Hmm... That's a good one, but not the one you need. Have you checked the other shelf and counter?

Counter

If clicked at any point

Clerk: Hmm... That's a good one, but not the one you need. If you already checked the shelves, maybe check the return bin again.

Return Bin

If clicked before all other options.

Clerk: Hmm... I doubt it's in there. Let's check the shelves and counter first.

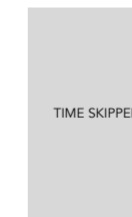

If clicked after all other options.

Clerk: Oh... My bad yo! Looks like it was in the return bin. I wish my computer could tell me stuff like that! Anyway, make sure to rewind and return it on time! Part of the excitement is that people can't watch the same movie as you are.

Clerk: Anyway, come back soon. Peace out!

Generic Fail State:

Deliver if user click the same wrong option twice.

Clerk: That's still a good one. Let's keep lookng.
