WHERE THERE'S A WILL THERE'S A WING

FRESHMAN YEAR

It started with the munchies... At 3:00 am after a long night on 6th Street in Austin, we were hungry for chicken wings. Although wing joints were abundant in the South, we were shocked to find none in Austin. We decided if no one else had the pluck to do it, we'd have to do it ourselves.

GRADUATION

We put together some money and built the original location on Rio Grande with our own hands and cheap labor (like Mark's younger brother, our future partner Sean). We opened for business on Sunday, July 23rd, exactly one day after we graduated from college.

OUR FIRST YEAR

Maybe we were a little unprepared. The original plan was that Mark and Dave would greet the customers out front and our employees would do the rest. Unfortunately, we realized quickly that we didn't know anything about the restaurant business. The next two years we spent in the kitchen working 100 hours a week...BUT WE MADE A PROFIT!

SENIOR YEAR

We knew we had a great idea when we were the only ones not serving chili at the Silver Spurs Chili Cook-Off, but we still had the longest line. Hundreds of hungry University of Texas students gave us their feedback and we sold out of the 1,000 pounds of wings we had cooked at our fraternity house that morning. That was when we decided to get serious about making our dream a reality.

NEXT WE KNEW...

We had our own fan following. We started being recognized as the best sports bar and chicken wing restaurant in the cities we are located. In fact, in 2012, USA Today named Pluckers one of the "Top 10 Wing Restaurants in America". Later that year, ESPN named Pluckers one of the "Top 5 Sports Bars in North America".

IN THE FUTURE

We'll continue to grow and we have all of you to thank for that! To all of our customers and loyal fans, we thank you so much, and we hope we can bring more Pluckers restaurants your way... Oh, and for everyone else... "If you don't like our wings, we'll give you the bird!"

"IF YOU DON'T LIKE OUR WINGS, WE'LL GIVE YOU THE BIRD!"
