ABOUT OUR HONOREES

THE TREVOR PROJECT

The Trevor Project, a longtime honoree of our GLINTA events, is a large national charity that provides suicide prevention and crisis intervention services to LGBTQ+ youth. A portion of the proceeds from GLINTA 2020 will be donated to The Trevor Project. Please visit <https://www.thetrevorproject.org/> to learn more about The Trevor Project, make a direct donation, and learn more about corporate partnerships and volunteer opportunities.

Dinisa Hardley Folmar (1972-2020) was a distinguished member of the trademark community whose career spanned the USPTO, private practice, and senior in-house IP roles at several major global brands, as well as service on the USPTO's Trademark Public Advisory Committee. A fierce advocate for all aspects of diversity and inclusion, Dinisa was a staunch ally of the LGBTQ+ community and a dedicated supporter of GLINTA. To honor Dinisa's legacy, we are in the process of creating a memorial scholarship that will support one or more diverse law students. A portion of the proceeds from our GLINTA 2020 event will be contributed to the scholarship fund, and we will be providing additional updates to the GLINTA community on its development. Please reach out to glinta@winterfeldt.law if you would like to make a direct contribution to the scholarship fund.

ENTERTAINMENT SPONSORS

Mark Addison, distinguished author of the award-winning book Cocktail Chameleon, is creating for us a custom GLINTAtini and GLINTArita and will be providing a video demonstration during GLINTA 2020! GLINTA guests who register by 11/17 will receive advance copies of the recipes for these two cocktails so that you can follow along and make your own. Please visit Cocktail Chameleon to purchase a copy of this fantastic book – an excellent holiday gift for any cocktail aficionado – or learn more about Mark’s creative and groundbreaking work in entertainment and hospitality! Through December 1st, Mark will donate 20% of sales proceeds to The Trevor Project when shoppers use the code TREVOR20 or add the following donation card to their cart:
