SVÅR UPPLÖSNING

My boyfriend broke up with me and he changed his profile picture of us to a picture of soup.

He keeps texting me though. I'm in IKEA and everything here makes me think of you.

He wants to have his breakup and eat it too. Is he in the section with all the beds?

The food court? The parking lot? Where? I have so many questions.

It feels like an accomplishment to be so linked to IKEA in likeness.

He misses me, he says. I say that's a very thin emotion.
