

Primary Location of work: Fort St. John, BC & Surrounding Area

Position(s): Environmental Professional

As Prospect continues to grow, we are seeking an individual to support our project team in the field and in the office as an environmental professional. Experience in pre-construction, reclamation assessments remediation both in the field and office are desirable. Familiarity with the applicable provincial, federal and Oil and Gas Commission acts and regulations is required. If you possess the skills listed below, and are looking for an exciting change, contact us today. Apply in person or Email resume to khogg@prospectenv.ca or visit our office at 10514 87 Ave. Fort St. John, BC.

The following are some of the responsibilities that may be associated with this role:

- Communicate with Management and Supervisors
- Review site information, project requests and prepare field files
- Complete pre-construction/Schedule A & Schedule B assessments & associated reporting
- Wildlife & wildlife habitat assessments
- Stream & wetland related assessments
- Field work for spill response & remediation activities
- Prepare and review reports and appendices for the above noted projects
- Complete required updates to clients and other service providers

A successful candidate will possess a combination of the following skills and qualifications:

- Relevant Canadian education (technical diploma or degree)
- Related field experience in Canadian environmental consulting or a related discipline
- Understanding of Canadian environmental regulations applicable to BC environmental consulting
- Poulin Training/Fish Habitat & Wetland training & qualifications
- Technical writing skills
- High competency in suite of office programs
- Adept in mapping software applicable to the industry

Safety Tickets

- H2S
- WHMIS
- eGSO
- First Aid
- TDG
- Drivers License

Prospect offers an excellent compensation package of competitive wages and benefits which will vary based on qualifications and experience. Thank you for your interest. Potential candidates will be contacted for interviews. References are required.

