“Our goal with a speaker series is to enlighten, inspire and help our employees become better versions of themselves. We couldn’t have done it without the expertise of Ripple Talks. From their curation of top speakers from a wide array of fields to managing the events, they have been an indispensable partner. Thanks to their hard work, it’s effortless for us to hold high impact talks and come together in a meaningful way. We look forward to many more eye-opening events with top experts to help our team grow and thrive.”
