SYDNEY TO PERTH

From the spectacular heights of the majestic Blue Mountains to the beautifully barren expanse of the Nullarbor Plain, this truly is a journey of contrasts.

From cities of millions to virtual ghost towns of just four hearty souls; from lush vineyards to vast goldmines, this astonishing journey links the coasts of the Indian Ocean with the Pacific Ocean in an absolutely remarkable 4352km journey.

You'll experience the world's longest straight stretch of railway track as you majestically travel on a transcontinental journey like no other.

As a guest travelling on the Indian Pacific from Sydney to Perth, there are Off Train Excursions to choose from in Broken Hill and Adelaide. All excursions give you the opportunity to learn about the magnificent destinations you are passing through.

BROKEN HILL

THE LIVING DESERT

(included in your journey - this tour operates October to March)

Broken Hill has long been known as a centre of excellence for the art of painting, and The Living Desert Sculpture Site is a wonderful inclusion in the town's creative history.

The Living Desert Reserve is nestled amongst the Barrier Ranges and is located 9km from the City of Broken Hill.

The Sculpture site is located on a majestic hilltop within the centre of the reserve. Completed in 1993 by artists from around the world, the area comprises of 12 sandstone artworks which highlight the skyline, all with a story to tell.

The Living Desert Sculpture site is a self-guided walk offering breath-taking views of the NSW outback and is the perfect location to capture some stunning photos.

Recommended Fitness Level: MODERATE – includes a short approx. 1km walk on sealed pathway and some rocky ground.

BROKEN HILL

PRO HART GALLERY

(included in your journey)

Paris, New York, London and Broken Hill. You might not think it, but this town's art scene could rival those of the biggest art capitals in the world.

An artist that represents the cheeky and colourful charm of Broken Hill, the late Kevin 'Pro' Hart's gallery is not to be missed when in town. Visit Pro Hart's gallery where on display is a wide selection of his signature paintings.

Browse all three floors of this inspiring gallery to learn how Pro created his masterpieces by drawing inspiration from experimenting with new forms of expression, sculpting with metal and stone, and tinkering away in his back shed to create all kinds of contraptions.

Enjoy a light morning tea as you take in the colourful artwork.

BROKEN HILL

MINERS MEMORIAL AND TRADES HALL

(included in your journey)

The Miner's Memorial is a unique and striking structure that sits at a height of 54 metres overlooking Broken Hill. This attraction is located on the highest point of the Line of Lode remnant mullock dumps that traverse the city.

The short axis of this building faces east-west addressing the rising and setting of the sun in memoriam to over 800 miners who lost their lives working in the Broken Hill Mines. This structure is an important monument to the city for both tourism and education about Broken Hill's rich mining history.

Walking past the walls lined with the names of miners, you will reach the ledge of this structure, which will give you full views of the rising sun, Broken Hill and the Outback beyond.

Visit Broken Earth with skyline views across town and the Indian Pacific below.

Visit Trades Hall, a heritage-listed building home to the city's first labour movement. Under the 'United we stand' banner, the Union successfully championed the 35-hour working week and defeated conscription in Australia.

You will enjoy a live performance by local actors showcasing the early mining story and life in Broken Hill.

Recommended Fitness Level: LOW – coach tour with short walks required. No wheelchair access.

ADELAIDE

BAROSSA VALLEY

(included in your journey)

Located 60 kilometres northeast of Adelaide, the Barossa Valley is a major wine producing region and tourist destination. Its cool summers and rainy winters are perfectly suited for red wine production, particularly Shiraz and richly flavoured Cabernet.

You will leave the train in Two Wells to embark on your journey of the senses. Travel past flat farm lands before arriving at the picturesque rolling hills of the Barossa Ranges which overlook a colourful patchwork of vineyards, dotted with historic churches, stone buildings and cottages beckoning you to explore.

The hospitality of the local community is memorable from the warm welcome of a cellar door, to the friendly hello and the many stories to be told by the locals, the Barossa Valley will welcome you.

Visit Seppeltsfield Wines where you will delight in a wine and food tasting experience in their charming Vintage Cellar. After your private tasting, enjoy a short stroll along the Elm Walk across the bridge into the Main Cellar. Here you can enjoy further wine tastings or take time to see the Jam Factory, a contemporary craft and design studio that incorporates both beautiful displays and visual galleries.

Venture on to Yalumba Winery where you will enjoy pre dinner drinks with a Yalumba Wine Ambassador who will take you through the cooperage process. Enjoy a sumptuous dinner served in the enchanting Signature Cellar, where you can sit back, relax and enjoy a glass or two with new friends you have made.

Travel back to Adelaide by coach to re-join the Indian Pacific to continue your journey to Perth.

Optional upgrade

Gold Service guests, upgrade your tasting experience at Seppeltsfield to Taste Your Birth Year in the Centenary Cellar. This additional tour offers the rare opportunity to try your own birth year vintage Tawny directly from the barrel. Cost - $80 per person, please advise your Hospitality Attendant. Inclusive for Platinum Service Guests.

Recommended Fitness Level: MODERATE – a coach tour with short walks at Seppeltsfield and Yalumba. Optional upgrade includes set of stairs.

ADELAIDE

HAHNDORF

(included in your journey)

The stunning Adelaide Hills region is known for its exceptional cool climate wines, thanks to warm days and cool nights during spring and summer, and the region's mouth-watering, high-quality produce which provides visitors with a memorable gastronomic experience.

Hahndorf is classified as Australia's oldest surviving German settlement and has a unique 'village feel' about it. The Main Street is lined with eateries, souvenir and gift shops, clothing and leather goods, craft outlets and galleries.

Leaving Adelaide by coach you will reach your destination in 40 minutes, while enjoying driver commentary along the way. An Introduction to Cheese at Udder Delights or a decadent chocolate experience at Chocolate @ No.5 (book your preference with your hospitality attendant onboard).

At Udder Delights you will learn about the cheese making process with your dedicated host and enjoy tasting different styles of cheese accompanied with local Apple or Pear Adelaide Hills Cider. While at Chocolate @ No.5 you will be immersed in a chocolate experience and learn about the world of artisan chocolate making. With two wonderful experiences on offer, your hardest decision for the day will be selecting to go for the savoury or sweet option.

After enjoying your chosen gastronomical delight, stroll down the road to The Haus - a German restaurant showcasing the best in local produce. Here you will be entertained as you enjoy a German inspired Bavarian dinner before returning to the Indian Pacific for your journey onwards through the night.

Recommended Fitness Level: LOW – coach tour with short walks required.

ADELAIDE

SA MUSEUM

(included in your journey)

You will delight in this exclusive crafted tour of the SA Museum as you explore distinctly unique exhibits in one of the most visited museums in Australia.

You will be immersed in the story of South Australia's vibrant fossil heritage and learn more about early paleontology across the Nullarbor plain

You will be delighted as you view the extensive and stunning collection of opals, meteorites and minerals on display and understand their significance in the evolution of Australia's desert landscapes and the history around South Australia's Opal wealth and cultural significance.

Enjoy the showcase of unique opalised fossils of ancient sea monsters that swam in the Eromanga Sea over 100 million years ago.

Your tour will also take in the most significant collection of Australian Aboriginal cultural material in the world.

In the evening, guests will enjoy canapes and drinks prior to a sumptuous dinner.

Hosted by one of Adelaide's renowned scientists, this is a wonderful finale to a uniquely immersive afternoon.

Recommended Fitness Level: MODERATE – short walks required through the exhibits.
