

BRUNO GUEVREMONT

INTERNATIONAL SPEAKER | VETERAN | COACH | ENTREPRENEUR

Previous speaking engagements & appearances

SUMMARY

Bruno Guevremont is a 15-year Canadian Forces Veteran, Navy Diver, Paratrooper and celebrated war hero, recognized for his 2 tours of duty and disarming a live suicide bomber.

Today, Guevremont owns and operates successful businesses. He is an international speaker, published author, host of "When The Smoke Clears" podcast, Invictus Games Ambassador and was Team Canada Captain in 2016. Bruno is a leading advocate for wounded warriors and PTSD.

SPEAKING TOPICS & WORKSHOPS

Corporate Events

Performance Optimization

Bruno combines 15 years of military experience (leading troops in high-pressure situations) and business acumen (starting and operating successful businesses). Bruno is an expert in high performance team-building and operational excellence.

Speaking & training topics include: Team-building, negotiations, organizational turnaround, effective interventions, resilience, stress management, and physical & mental wellbeing.

Service Connected Events

Military-To-Civilian Transitioning

Bruno led troops for 15 years in the military, where he was trained as a Weapons Specialist, Paratrooper, Navy Diver, and member of the Canadian Counter Improvised Explosive Disposal Team. He served 2 deployments in Afghanistan and 1 in Southeast Asia.

Speaking & training topics include: Mental strength conditioning, resume strategies, career counseling, leadership, self-esteem, stress management, character, philanthropy, and reintegration readiness.

Bruno customizes all presentations based on your group's particular needs. Please indicate your presentation topic request during time of booking.

<https://www.brunoguevremont.com/>

Facebook - @brunoguevremont

LinkedIn - Bruno Guevremont

Twitter - @Be_Redemption

Instagram - @Bruno_Guevremont