THE TRENDS

Health disparities continue with very modest improvements but gaps of as much as 25% between races and gender show there is far to go.

Achievement disparities persist with African American, Latino, Native American and Pacific Islander students achieving at lower rates than Caucasian and Asian American peers.

Compared to Asians and Caucasians, a significantly larger percentage of Blacks and Latino Oaklanders have either no or insufficient liquid savings, to weather even small, economic shocks - like a towed car or an unexpected doctor bill.

Compared to other races, Black youth are disproportionately suspended, arrested, incarcerated in Oakland, and Black males comprise the majority of homicide victims.

Children of Families in housing transition have increased incidents of illness, and emotional and behavioral problems.
