UX Designer

We're looking for a UX Designer to join our team in Porto or Hamburg!

Who are we?

We enable marketers to unify their targeting by understanding consumers on their own terms using our high performance and low latency systems for online marketing. We are an international company with offices in the US, Germany, Denmark, and a development team in Portugal.

What are we looking for?

We're looking for someone that'd love to be responsible for:

- Improving usability and maintaining a consistent and fluid experience throughout our UI
- Thinking like a user and making our platform as intuitive as possible to achieve their goals
- Proactively communicating with users to conduct user testing and research to collect feedback for the platform
- Translating research into concepts, wireframes, and workflows for new features and products
- Help conceptualize the new insights product with a focus on the interaction with big data

It’s awesome if you:

- Love thinking outside the box
- Constantly think about how to optimize the user experience
- Have a startup mindset
- Find collaborating and mediating with multiple stakeholders to identify pain points a dream
- Translate user needs into structured wireframes to facilitate the conception of new products, services and features
- Apply Usability Testing, Card Sorting, Ethnographical Studies, and Expert Interviews.
- Have at least two-years experience as a UX and are a self-starter

- Are a little bit of a perfectionist
- Have a thirst for knowledge and how things work
- Speak and write English easily (but we’re not looking for Shakespeare)

What we can offer:

- Great and flexible working conditions
- Competitive salary with lots of benefits
- Chance to work on a leading-edge project
- And all the other usual things – work from home, free snacks, team activities, and beers in the fridge.
