VOLUME 23 ISSUE 3

MARCH 21, 2018

Drum Roll, Please...

Behold! You are viewing the new logo for St. Paul Lutheran Church & School. The acquisition of this branding is in conjunction with our new website, which will be activated at the end of the school year under the same url (StPaulBayCity.org). Stay tuned for another newsletter detailing the website's philosophy and structure.

Many conversations went into the planning of this design, which was created by the same advertising company that will maintain the website, namely B2C Enterprises. The branding comes with suggested standards for use, which will be strictly followed by the church and school so as to maintain continuity and professionalism. Along with the brand comes an updated letterhead and business cards, with blue as the church's color and green for our beloved Wildcats. I am no art critic, but allow me to analyze the subtleties of the logo.

The first thing the eye is drawn to is the iconic steeple. St. Paul is blessed, by a quirk of modern-day progress, to be situated on a main road adjacent to I-75. Tens of thousands of people cast their eyes on St. Paul's steeple each day, the highest point of which is the cross. Truly, the highest order of this congregation is the proclamation of the cross of Jesus Christ, whose blood sets us free to be people of God. The cross is attached to the historic steeple, yet protrudes heavenward beyond the local sphere. This highlights St. Paul's commitment to their forbearers in the faith, while expressing a desire for the gospel to transcend beyond our own community.

Said circle, signifying our unity and spiritual equality in Christ, is not a closed circuit. The shape is invisible in both the extension of the steeple and the name of the congregation. This indicates the persistent dissolution of closed boundaries brought about by the addition of more believers in Jesus Christ. Although we have our history, all of the founding saints are asleep in Christ. Likewise, the day will come when we too will sleep, and subsequent generations will proclaim the same message. May God will it and the creek (literally) not rise!

Note the three diagonal lines gracing the background. Some see sunbeams; others a three-lane highway. Apart from the literal manifestations of I-75 and M80, the road is the journey of faith and life, now crooked, now winding, now straight and narrow, but always and ever passing in and out of congregational life under the Word and Sacraments.

Finally, and not least significant, is the title itself: St. Paul Lutheran Church & School. The ampersand (&) indicates a unity of mission, though a diversity of purpose. The school exists to educate, refine, and perpetuate life-long disciples of Christ—a natural outcropping from the promise of grace given in the church's weekly life of worship.

You can look forward to the ubiquity of this branding and logo as we continue to move forward in Christ's love.

Ladies Aid News

The March Ladies Aid meeting opened with a devotion titled For Better or Worse read by Melissa Appold. We all face challenges and hardships in our lives and things we as sinful people do actually make them worse. Actions like worrying, striving to fix it ourselves, gossiping and seeking help from people, holding on to bitterness, and giving up in despair all make our burdens heavier to bear. Prayer and faith is the best way to offload those burdens. Prayer is always the good, better, and best response to any bad situation.

Ladies Aid will be sponsoring a bus trip Saturday, June 9 to Eastern Market in Detroit. We'll enjoy shopping time, an escorted walking tour (a 'stroll' I was assured appropriate for all fitness levels and ages) with food sampling from various vendors, an escorted bus tour of Detroit city highlights, and a stop in Clawson on the way home for shopping at Leon and Lulu's and/or dinner on your own at a variety of eateries within a block or so radius. Cost is $85 due by May 7, and everyone is invited. Please get your RSVP in sooner rather than later! Call, text or email Julia Appold 525-6293, fuzlie85@gmail.com.

April 2 is our Honorary Member recognition meeting starting at 6:30 p.m. with a potluck. Spouses and guests are invited for the fun and food.

Morgan Auernhammer, an exercise specialist at Covenant, did a great job leading us in exercises that are easy to incorporate into our daily lives at home that will help increase our fitness level. Always a good goal to have!

Updates from Friendship Circle

We, the St. Paul ladies active in the LWML, have been discovering more blessings and spiritual growth as we attend our monthly meetings. In February our eyes and hearts were opened to the saving work of Better Way Imports. Our fingers were busy last week cutting and tying fleece quilts which will be offered to a charity to be determined. We serve the Lord with gladness and together have uplifting times.

We welcome Kathy Lustila into the LWML FC! May God bless our fellowship together as we all strive to be the hands and feet of Jesus, serving the Lord with gladness!

The 8th grade Confirmation class will have their first Communion on Maundy Thursday. In the auditorium immediately following the 6:30 p.m. service will be a reception for them and their guests. Meeting their Secret Pals and enjoying some refreshments highlight the happy event.

The Bay Area Zion Spring Rally will be at Trinity, Monitor on Saturday, April 14. More details to come!

Our meeting on Thursday, April 19 at 6:30 p.m. will find us gathered in St. Paul auditorium for an in-depth Bible study led by Pastor Matyas.

Several St. Paul Ladies are planning to attend the 37th LWML District Convention in Port Huron, July 19-22. Pray about this opportunity for you to grow in your knowledge of the LWML, experience the joy of being with hundreds of like-minded Christian women, and come back with a refreshed spirit! Talk to Dorothy Helmreich for more encouragement or just to get your questions answered. Applications will soon be available!

Please watch for more LWML news and updates in the Sunday church bulletins and emails!

Gather with your St. Paul sisters in Christ celebrating and showing others that our God is alive and His Spirit ever burning in our hearts and lives! Where do others see Jesus in you?

Lutheran Education Advancement Plan

Advancing Lutheran Education for Future Generations Across the Great Lakes Bay Region

Ministry Leaders Strengthen Education Programs

In 2013, the beginnings of a "Sustainable Lutheran Schools Project Implementation Plan" were unfolding, guided by representatives of Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod churches and schools of the Great Lakes Bay Region. The effort, later to be known as "LEAP", involved studies and initiatives guided by some twenty task forces. One such task force focused on inviting and encouraging leaders at area LCMS churches/schools to describe in print the composition of their educational ministries, and to include plans and proposals for the near future. All of the reporting which was made available beginning in 2013 is available yet today online (at LEAP Ministry Plans / Michigan District, LCMS). Every report is headed by the words "Education Ministry Plan," and at each site, some two to four pages of description and explanation are presented, providing quite a few helpful details, available to be considered and perhaps replicated by education leaders at other Lutheran church/school sites. The many shared models are a benefit which comes through the existence of LEAP programs, initiatives, and publications.

Three Prayers for Children Needing our Attention

1. ...From Lebanon..."Please pray for Syrian refugee children who are born out of their country, living with names but without papers or ID cards to prove that they really exist. Each one of these babies is in need of prayer and in need of God's love."

2. ...From Laos..."Thirty families from a village in Laos will have to find a new place to live because they were expelled for being Christians. Please pray for God to provide a new location for them and that His peace would fill these believers."

3. ...From Myanmar/Burma..."Praise the Lord for a camp conducted by Open Doors for the children from the Kachin tribe. Eighteen children accepted Jesus. Pray they grow up with a hunger for God and that older believers would step in to shepherd them."

Christian children around the world are especially vulnerable to secular pressure, persecution, and Biblical fallacies because they don't have the experiences, maturity, or understand the impact Christ can have in their lives at such an early age. They truly need Christian support, parents, relatives, and friends who are Christian to encourage and help strengthen them in their faith. They need God's protection, guidance, and love so very much. Thank you for being a Christian who prays for these dear children.

Operetta "Rescue in the Night" by Young 5's-4th Graders

Stay Informed. Stay Alert. Stay Aware.

Very recently Chinese communist leader, Xi Jinping has been legally enabled to become elected again without term limitations. This could result in a basic "leader for life" scenario or dictatorship. This has the potential of him becoming a dictator similar to Mao Zedong.

The Chinese Christian community has been and is experiencing great strides in reaching hundreds of thousands of people for Christ. They are hearing the Gospel proclaimed and are claiming Christ as their Lord and Savior. However, communist officials view these activities as threatening and are putting pressure on those believers in some places. These home-based Christian churches in China are being watched and monitored.

With this political change comes the increased threat of even harsher measures being enforced.

Read, listen to, and watch news releases coming from China.

Pray for our Chinese brothers and sisters in Christ. May they stand strong in their faith and continue to spread the Good News of the Gospel. May these fears prove unfounded!
