October 2021

Dear Friends,

Give thanks for the relaxation of travel restrictions in England, which has led to more bookings for October and November. The Lord has answered prayer so that day 2 tests on returning to England will no longer have to be PCR tests and should therefore be cheaper. (If you want to book a holiday on the basis of this information, please check the exact date the changes come in.) Pray that those who come will be blessed by their time here.

Give thanks that work is finally going ahead on the shower in room 5 and please pray that this will not take too long and that the insurance will pay. (In principle, they have said that they will.)

Praise God that Esther was able to fly to England for Lottie's wedding blessing (the actual wedding was last year). Lottie helped us out for several months a few years ago, and she and Esther are close friends. Give thanks that all went fairly well in spite of problems with e-gates at Heathrow, and that Esther was able to enjoy the occasion in spite of her nasty cold. Please pray for Lottie and her husband Matt, that they might really come to know the Lord.

Give thanks for Amie and Herbert from Austria, who spent some time with us in September and kindly repainted and repainted the downstairs window frames.

Give thanks that Esther enjoyed her work experience and seems to be settling in to her new school, but please continue to pray for wisdom regarding her future.

We are hoping to start a Christianity Explored course with Daniela and Susanne this coming Thursday. Please pray for us as we use this for almost the first time, and particularly for Susanne, that the Lord will open her heart.

Please pray for more bookings. We have had several enquiries recently, but actual bookings are fewer.

Please continue to pray for Tom's health. As we expected, he hasn't been able to go back to school this year. We really don't know what to do next, as pretty much anything would involve making an appointment outside the house, which we would have no way of knowing whether he would be able to keep.

Love to all,

Deb, Tim, Tom and Esther
