

Tim and Deb Brooks

March 2023

Dear Friends,

Give thanks for David, Christine and Alan, who came out and repainted one of our guest rooms in February.

Give thanks for the Lord's provision of another helper, Rebecca, arriving at the end of this month. This is particularly well timed in view of a group from Zürich arriving on 31st, and then Geoff's church over Easter. Pray that her time here will be a blessing to her.

Give thanks that the Lord continues to provide students for Deb and guests for the house, although we still need more, particularly of the latter.

Give thanks that Tom's medication still seems to be working, and please pray for the Lord's help and strength as he slowly recovers and has to adjust to this.

Please pray for the Lord's blessing on our Bible study group. It's encouraging to have people coming regularly, including some who are not believers, but it also makes the group more difficult to lead, as some people tend to take over! Please pray for the Lord's wisdom in dealing with this, and also that He will guide in what questions get raised, that they might be useful to the group in general and not just the special interests of one particular person!

One morning recently, we woke up and discovered that the heating wasn't working! We rang the local firm, who came in very quickly and dealt with the problem, but we are expecting a large bill for this work. Please pray for the Lord's provision.

Please continue to pray that the leak in the roof might be sorted out.

The lady who is training Esther at the bakery where she is working has found another job. Esther is finding the situation extremely stressful. Please pray for the Lord's hand in this situation, and that Esther will have wisdom about what to do. If it is right for her to swap to a different bakery, pray that the Lord will provide another place not too far away.

Tom should be seeing the doctor again next week. Pray for wisdom for all concerned.

Please pray for safe travelling for Len and Phyl as they come back to Germany around the middle of this month, and for the Lord's blessing on their time here, as well as for Tim and Deb's trip to England after Easter.

Love to all,

Deb, Tim, Tom and Esther
