Profile

Gilbert Monod de Froideville is the founder of Protocol International, a master trainer, consultant, lecturer and author.

He was born in Garoet, in the former Dutch East Indies on 20 June 1942. After completing secondary school (modern grammar school, economics side), he began his military service in 1963.

Cavalry Officer

Royal Netherlands army

Having joined the professional army as a cavalry officer he occupied various posts in the operational sector. He was appointed as instructor at the Cavalry Reserve Officer Cadet School in 1968. In 1973, he was posted to the Federal Republic of Germany where he served as squadron commander in a tank battalion.

He returned to The Netherlands and was appointed Aide-de Camp to the Commander in Chief of the Royal Netherlands Army (also Chief of the Royal Netherlands Army Staff) from 1977 until 1981, when he was transferred to the RNLA Personnel Department. After several years in this department he was appointed Aide-de Camp to the Chairman of the NATO Military Committee in Brussels. He worked for more than three years in the office of the Chairman taking care of the meetings and tours of the Military Committee and the military protocol .

On 1 December 1986 Mr Monod de Froideville was appointed Aide-de Camp to Queen Beatrix of the Netherlands.

Master of Ceremonies, Chief of Royal Protocol

Royal Court of H. M. Queen Beatrix

On 1 January 1988, he was appointed Master of Ceremonies to Queen Beatrix. On this date he left the active military service and was appointed Reserve Lieutenant Colonel.

During his time at the Royal Court he was responsible for

- The organisation of all Palace events, receptions, presentation of honours and awards.
- All protocol affairs within the Royal Court, including the welcome and departure ceremonies for visiting heads of state, presentation of credentials and wreath laying ceremonies.
- All of the outgoing and incoming state visits.
- The implementation of Protocol and training of staff at the Royal Household.

Protocol International

Consul General

Ministry for Foreign Affairs

With almost nine years of service in the royal household Mr Monod de Froideville was posted to the Protocol Department of the Ministry for Foreign Affairs and on 1 January 1997 was appointed head of the aspect management team, in charge of organising the Dutch Presidency of the European Union.

Gilbert H.A. Monod de Froideville assumed his assignment as Consul General of the Netherlands in Chicago in September 1997.

Master of Ceremonies, Chief of Royal Protocol

Royal Court of H. M. Queen Beatrix

On 1 May 2001, Queen Beatrix re-appointed him Master of Ceremonies. During this time he organised all of the Family Celebrations, such as Wedding Anniversaries, Royal Weddings (including organising the weddings of Queen Beatrix's three sons), State Funerals (organised the state funerals of the husband, mother and father of Queen Beatrix) and the baptisms of two of the daughters of the Prince of Orange, now King Willem-Alexander).

He retired on 1 June 2007 and was appointed Honorary Chamberlain of Queen Beatrix of the Netherlands (now Princess Beatrix).
