CrisisGo Welcomes Chris Vuillaume Aboard as New General Manager

St. Louis, Missouri: CrisisGo is pleased to announce the hiring of Chris Vuillaume as General Manager. In his new role, Mr. Vuillaume will advance the company's mission to provide schools and organizations with the technology they need to improve safety for all their people — anytime, anywhere.

Chris Vuillaume comes to CrisisGo with a strong national and international background and nearly two decades of business, software, and SaaS leadership experience. He has an exceptional track record as an entrepreneur and executive who has grown businesses both small and large. Mr. Vuillaume began proving his innovation and leadership skills shortly after graduating college; he co-founded NETMANSYS, a telecommunications software company, and raised $11 million in venture capital.

Mr. Vuillaume has held an array of high-profile positions, including VP of Marketing and Business Development at Alcatel-Lucent; VP of Sales for UniVoIP; VP of Marketing and Sales for CalAmp; SVP of Sales and Business Development at Fonality, where he grew the company from $3M to $30M revenue; and SVP of Global Sales for Everbridge, which he joined to rebuild the sales team.

In addition to his rich experience in the U.S. market, Mr. Vuillaume has tremendous global expertise, having successfully launched businesses in Japan and Australia. He is adept at building up both direct and indirect sales channels and managing strategic relationships.

Mr. Vuillaume says, "I am thrilled to be joining the CrisisGo team, where I can use my sales and leadership expertise to grow the company and bring powerful safety solutions to a multitude of schools and organizations."
