After consulting with local health officials, and in looking at hospitalization numbers of COVID patients in area hospitals, the City of Loganville will be taking additional steps to limit public access to government buildings. Effective Thursday, Jan. 6th, 2021, access to City Hall will be by appointment only. Protocols will be put in place – including wearing of a mask and temperature checks – for those wishing to gain entry into City Hall.

- For those wishing to pay their water bill, payment can be placed in the secure drop-off box located in the parking lot of City Hall. Credit card payments can be made online at <https://loganvillega.mygovhub.com/#/>. Those wishing to set up a new service will need to call 770-466-1165 or email info@loganville-ga.gov to set up an appointment.
- Planning and Development related matters will be conducted by appointment only. Those needing assistance can email planning@loganville-ga.gov or call 770-466-2633.
- Questions related to business licenses or establishing a new business can be sent to info@loganville-ga.gov
- The City Council meetings scheduled for January 11, 2021, and January 14, 2021, will be combined and held via Zoom beginning at 6:30 p.m. on January 14, 2021. This meeting will be done in accordance to Georgia Code 50-14-1 and the Public Health State of Emergency which was extended by Gov. Kemp on Dec. 30, 2020.
- The Planning Commission meeting scheduled for January 28, 2021, will be conducted via Zoom. This meeting will be done in accordance to Georgia Code 50-14-1 and the Public Health State of Emergency which was extended by Gov. Kemp on Dec. 30, 2020.
