

Faithful Prayers of Fractured Lives

Part 7

Jonah 1-2

Presented by
Pastor Pete Potloff
August 16, 2020

JONAH'S PRAYER

- The path of prayerlessness is a steep descent into despair.
- When you don't have the words, use God's.
 - Praying the Bible gives power to prayer.
 - Praying the Bible gives focus to prayer.
- Renewed faith is built on our relationship with Christ, not outcomes.
 - The prodigal's path to peace starts with prayer.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Jonah is known as the prodigal prophet. What hope does this passage offer present day prodigals and sinners?
2. How do you typically interact with those who offend you the most? How would you respond if God called you to help them today?
3. What has been the greatest obstacle in your prayer life? How could praying the Bible help you with that obstacle?