Dalzell Trading and FLX Distribution form Partnership

Dalzell Trading is thrilled to announce our partnership with FLX Distribution where we are the ALIGNED Buy-Side Trading Desk assisting FLX Distribution members with their trading needs at no expense to their firms.

Dalzell Trading's outsourced trading solution provides asset managers and hedge funds a Buy-Side Trading Desk whose interests are truly ALIGNED with each Manager's strategies and best interests – all at no expense to our asset managers. We have brought together highly skilled traders from the buy-side and sell-side to provide Managers with a unique turnkey solution to their equity and options trading needs. The deep team includes former Heads of Trading at BlackRock and Janney, a Managing Director and head of several businesses from Goldman Sachs and Wells Fargo, and senior traders from BlackRock.

FLX Distribution is a Resource and Asset Management Platform (RAMP) providing traditional distribution solutions combined with sharing economy concepts across distinct markets, such as asset managers, distribution professionals, wealth managers, and solutions providers (Dalzell Trading). FLX Solutions Providers are a curated group of business services and solutions that help FLX Distribution's members innovate and grow their businesses.
