SIMPLY MUNICH

In Munich, it's the mix that makes the message. Old meets new, past meets present and future, the modern blends harmoniously with the traditional. For the visitor, there is never any shortage of sights to see or activities to engage in.

The Bavarian Metropolis with its 1.5 million inhabitants lies virtually at the centre of Europe and is easy to access through a large international airport.

All major sights are at walking distance from each other. As for the Alps, they are at a stone's throw and attract day-trippers all year round.

For a closer encounter with history, there is the mighty Residenz. Its richly decorated rooms tell the story of centuries of rule by the Wittelsbachs. Nymphenburg Castle, the summer palace, lies to the west of the city at the entrance of a large park. The most famous castle, Neuschwanstein, is nestled in the dramatic foothills of the Alps and makes for an excellent daytrip.

Munich people love sports. The state-of-the-art Allianz Arena stadium is home of Munich's famous club FC Bayern.

Munich is a shopper's paradise, with fine fashions and designer outlets. A local curiosity is the so-called Königlich Bayerischen Hoflieferanten, or Royal Bavarian Suppliers, whose products are still deemed very noble and of particularly high quality. These range from jewels and tableware, to victuals of all kind.
