THREE-DAY TRAINING

LOS MOCHIS, SINALOA, MX

NexGen prepares the next generation of young believers to know, live and share the Word of God; so that they can serve and invigorate their local churches. We work to strengthen the future advancement of the gospel in Latin America.

200 young people from three different states, Sonora, Sinaloa and Nayarit.

Three full days of biblical exposition, we teach hard and we play hard.

GOOD FELLOWSHIP

The students enjoyed fellowship and refreshments where relationships were strengthened. Please pray for the future of these young people as they establish relationships and a network of ministry partners.

GOOD HOPE

We are happy to see God at work in the next generation of youth in the region; and grateful to be part of that move.

If the Lord allows it, we will continue working in the next weeks in the next training and camp.

GOOD TEACHING

Clear and sound teaching, at the same time deep in biblical truths.

At Planted we are thrilled to expose them to the Word of God.

Our goal is to develop young people who are passionate about learning to value and live
the Scriptures.

MINISTRY EXPANSION

NORTH PACIFIC REGION OF MEXICO

The Planted team is expanding into the North Pacific region cities of Compostela and Culiacan.

A church plant launched this year, a planter in training already doing the work in the ministry, and one more preparing to be sent to one of the most dangerous cities in Mexico.

LAUNCHING SERVICE IN COMPOSTELA

On Sunday April 24 Pastor Joel Reyes had the launch service of the Compostela Bible Church. After doing a good missionary work, evangelism and preaching the Word, a good group of people gathered to start their worship services.

STARTING STRONG IN COMPOSTELA

Joel Reyes is a young planter originally from Honduras. Last year he arrived in the city of Compostela with his family to plant churches.

CULIACÁN, SINALOA, MEXICO

Culiacán Rosales, is a city in northwestern Mexico, which is the capital and largest city in the state of Sinaloa. With a population of 1,003,500 in the metropolitan area. It is well known for its culture, luxuries, and celebrations. The economy is mainly agricultural and commerce. In Sinaloa, 78.4% of the population is Catholic, 8.6% Protestant, Evangelical and people without religion with 12.4 percent.

Culiacan is known to be submerged in a drug culture, it is a city oppressed by the cartel where the light of the gospel of Christ is greatly needed.

Planted Ministries is preparing our first church planter to be sent to this city. We are committed to sending church planters into the darkest places with the light of the gospel.
