1.1. Saraswathi area 6 routes in Crag

Long/Lat: 15.92955,75.67913

Summary: All Sport climbing

Description

Saraswathi area is 700m from Badami bus station towards the north. It is not much explored site for rock climbing. However, the area has huge potential for more than 30 routes. There are only 6 bolted routes at present on single towering rock amidst sloping terrain. On climbing the tower one can experience the beautiful view of the fields and coconut plantation on the downhill. Early morning or evening climbing preferred at Saraswathi area.

Approach

Saraswathi area is 700m from Badami bus station towards the north.

1.2. Ganesh plateau 36 routes in Sector

Long/Lat: 15.92979,75.68212

Summary: Mostly Sport climbing

Description

Great climbing, afternoon shade

Approach

Looking at the bus station take a tuk tuk right, about 1km you will see a petrol station and to the left of it a palm plantation. Walk through the petrol station and towards the back of the palm plantation. Exit the plantation at back right, follow sandy trail to rock crop, you will see a water tower head towards it, cut left and up through rocky area, when easy ground is seen. There will be a village on your right keep heading straight up towards boulders. For Saraswati tower turn left as come to the Boulder towers, walk between the boulders and you will see it down and on your left. For Sunset wall and Ganesh area keep heading straight after village and keep going between the boulders and up to a large plateau, cross the plateau and keep heading away from the town. You will go through another small boulder cluster and reach another plateau, cross this plateau and you will see the sunset wall on your left. At the end of the plateau go through another boulder cluster off to back right of the plateau. Walk across small grass section and head left, you will see a gorge with routes on both sides.

1.5. Temple area 32 routes in Sector

Long/Lat: 15.91326,75.68856

Summary: Mostly Sport climbing

Approach

Grab at tuk tuk and say A rung a na ta, mind the spelling. Or temple with stairs. Looking at the bus station take a tuk tuk left, and just on the outskirts of town you will see a yellow arch way with concrete road heading towards a water tower. Follow the dirt road up to stairs.

Ganesha ★★★ 25m Sport 11 bolts 8b+ |||||

Crag classic, you will see a small shrine on the right hand side of staircase as you near the rocks. Take this and follow the wall around to find ganesha. Or walk to temple intersection turn right down gully and right again at end of gully.
