

Scripture and Background Information for September 30- October 6

After Sunday, September 30, we would like each group to discuss Psalm 146:5-10. To prepare for that discussion, group members should use the Discussion Guide to complete the GOD'S WORDS and MY WORDS columns, and if possible, watch Episode 4. (All of the episodes are here: bit.ly/mckinneyflow).

Background Information for Psalm 146:5-10

Psalms 146-150 are five "Hallelujah" psalms that make up a collection of praises. These psalms were used at some point as part of the daily prayers in the synagogue worship. Psalm 146 celebrates God as the just king.

In our fallen world where God-given order is often corrupted by those in power, this Psalm gives an insight into how God grants justice to those who are victimized by evil. It encourages us to both trust in the Lord as the ultimate justice-giver, and to actively engage in helping him to accomplish his purposes. As you read about God and his characteristics, how can we better pursue God's character and pursue his mission?
