2. 10:45 am _____

3. 9:30 pm _____

4. 1:00 am _____

AFTER-READING ACTIVITY

Write a love letter

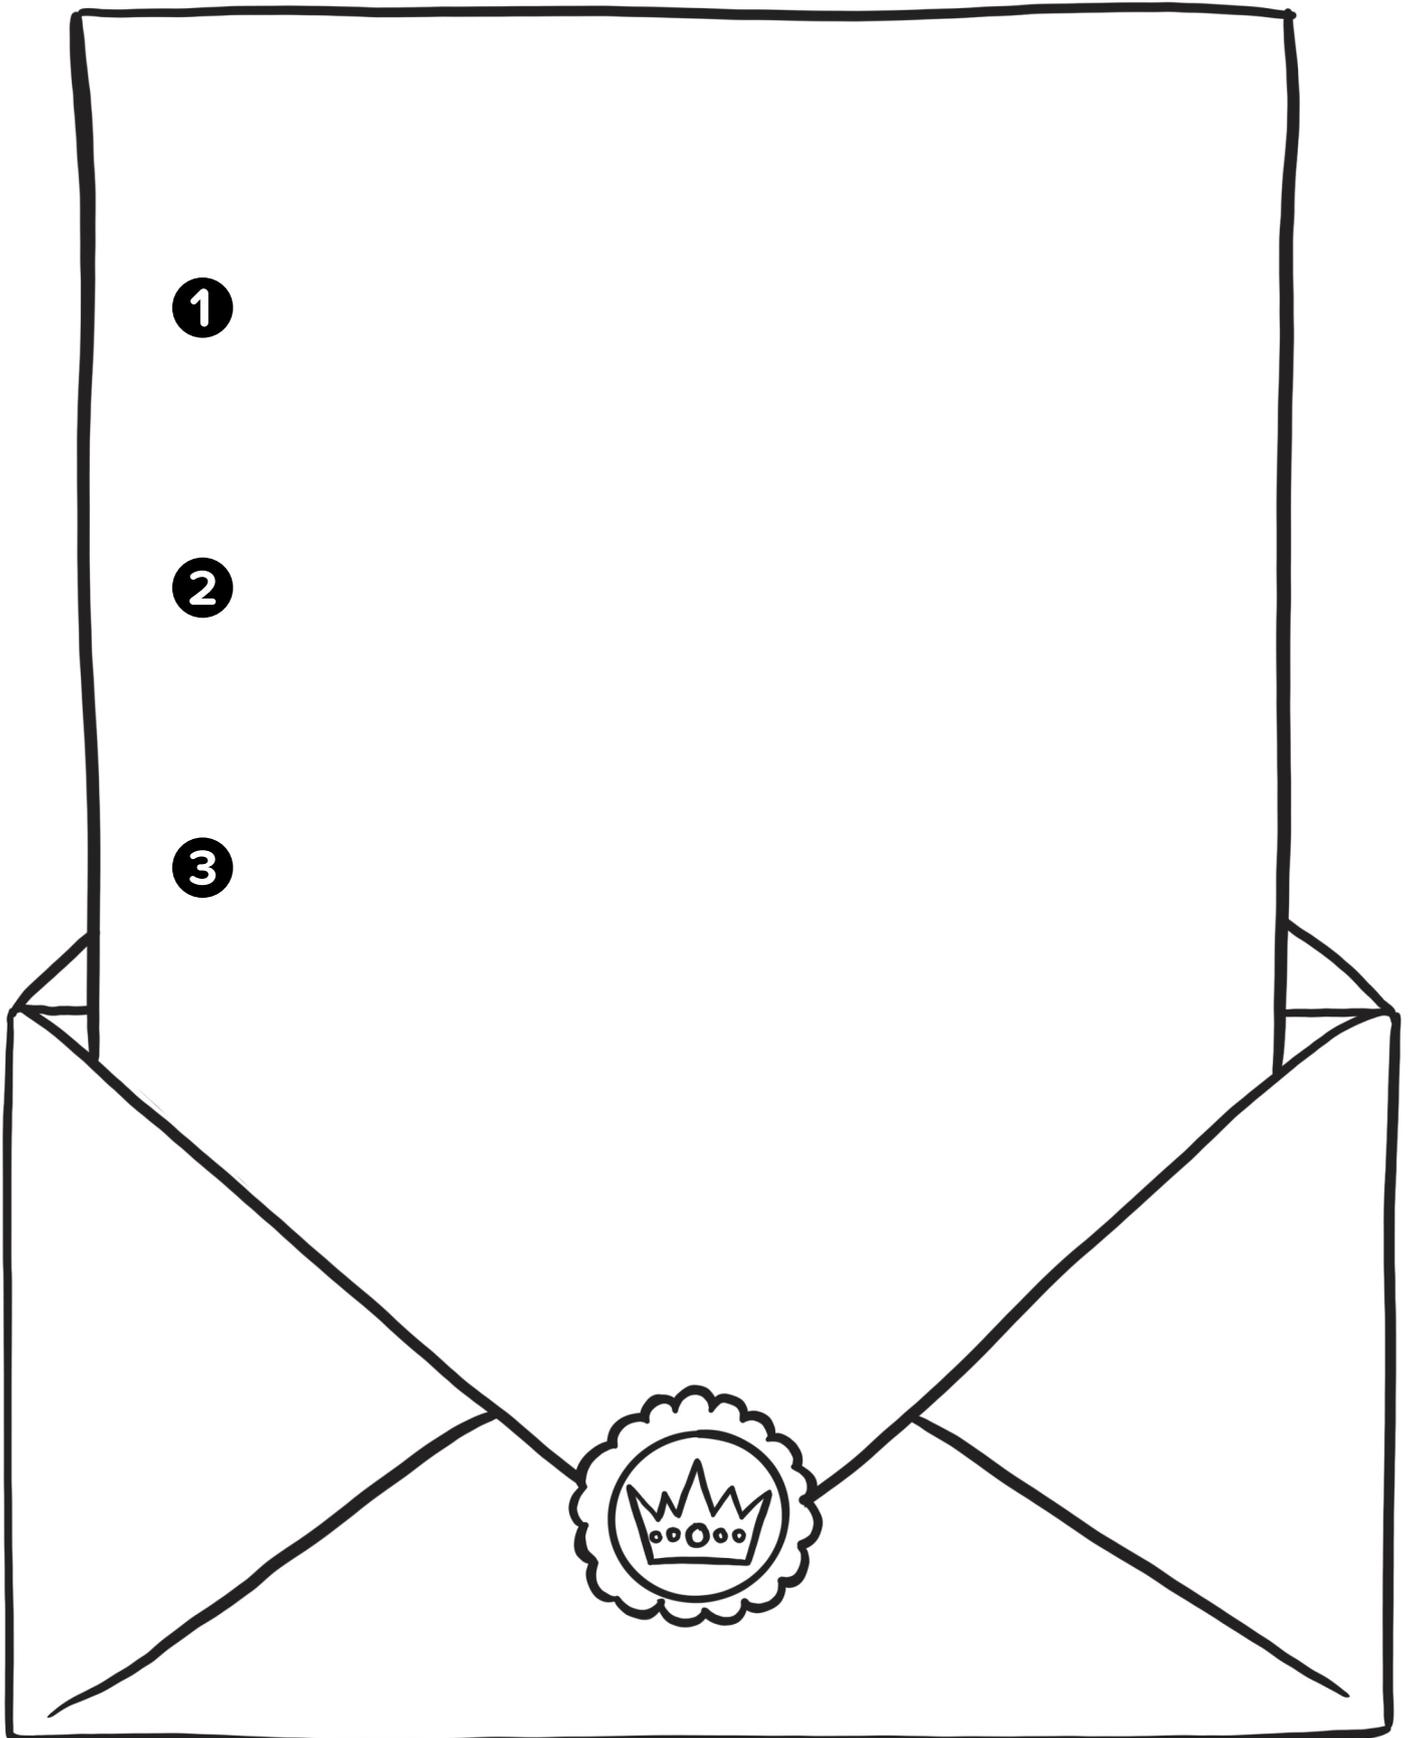

DIRECTIONS: This activity will help you practice comparing things in Spanish. You heard a lot of comparisons in Blancanieves y los siete enanitos. In English, we have a few ways of comparing things:

1. Sometimes we use the words more or most: more beautiful, most beautiful.
2. Sometimes we add -er or -est to the end of a word: big, bigger, biggest.
3. Or we can say two things are the same with the phrase as ___ as ___: as blue as the ocean.

How do comparisons sound Spanish? Go back and read Blancanieves y los siete enanitos again. This time, stop when you hear these comparisons. Write down the translations in the chart.

| | Translation |
|-------------------------------|-------------|
| more beautiful | |
| most beautiful | |
| hair as black as night | |
| lips as red as roses | |
| skin as white as snow | |
| her fastest carriage | |

Now, use what you've learned to help the King brainstorm three nice comparisons he could include in a love letter to his wife:

AFTER-READING ACTIVITY

Fill the fruit basket

DIRECTIONS (Part 1): Can you remember the words for different fruits in Spanish? First, fill the Queen's fruit basket with the fruits you remember from the story. Label each fruit in Spanish. Then go back to the story and check your answers.

(Part 2): Make the Queen a more convincing fruit seller by adding new and exotic fruits to her basket. Then look up the words for each new fruit in Spanish and add labels to your drawings.
