Directions

Print this packet out after you read Raiponce at TheFableCottage.com.

In this story we've added details and descriptions to help you learn French.

Learning objectives

The activities in this packet will help you practice these things from the story:

1. Question words and basic questions
2. Introductions and other common phrases

AFTER-READING ACTIVITY

Common phrases

DIRECTIONS: Write the translation for these common words and phrases. If you need help, go back and reread Raiponce.

Good evening

Can you help me?

Thank you

Please

My name is _____

Goodbye

DIRECTIONS: Practice these phrases. Write a short conversation in French between two people who are meeting on the street. Use at least three of the phrases above in your dialogue.

Questions

DIRECTIONS (Part 1): Raiponce is filled with question words. See how many of these you remember how to say in French and write the translations. Check your answers.

Who?	What?	Why?	Where?

DIRECTIONS (Part 2): Now read the story again. Stop when you hear these questions and write the translation.

Who are you? _____

What do you want? _____

Why are you crying? _____

Where did you get it? _____

DIRECTIONS (Part 3): Write three common questions you think you might need to know how to say. Look up their translations in French and write them below. Remember to use the correct punctuation for questions in French.

English	French

Real heroes

DIRECTIONS: What makes someone a real hero in the story? See if you remember what these sentences from the story mean. Read each sentence in French. If it is something that the character did that made them a real hero, put a checkmark in the box. If it didn't make the person a hero, write an "X" in the box.

	Justin avait essayé de combattre un géant
	Justin avait essayé de tuer un dragon
	Justin avait sauvé un chat dans un arbre
	Lorsque Raiponce avait envie de pleurer, Justin racontait des blagues jusqu'à ce qu'elle pleure de rire.
	Raiponce fabriquait des remèdes pour les yeux de Justin
	Justin l'aidera à construire une nouvelle tour
