TheFableCottage.com after-reading activities

Directions

Print this packet out after you read El enano saltarín at TheFableCottage.com.

In this story we've added details and descriptions to help you learn Spanish.

Learning objectives

The activities in this packet will help you practice these things from the story:

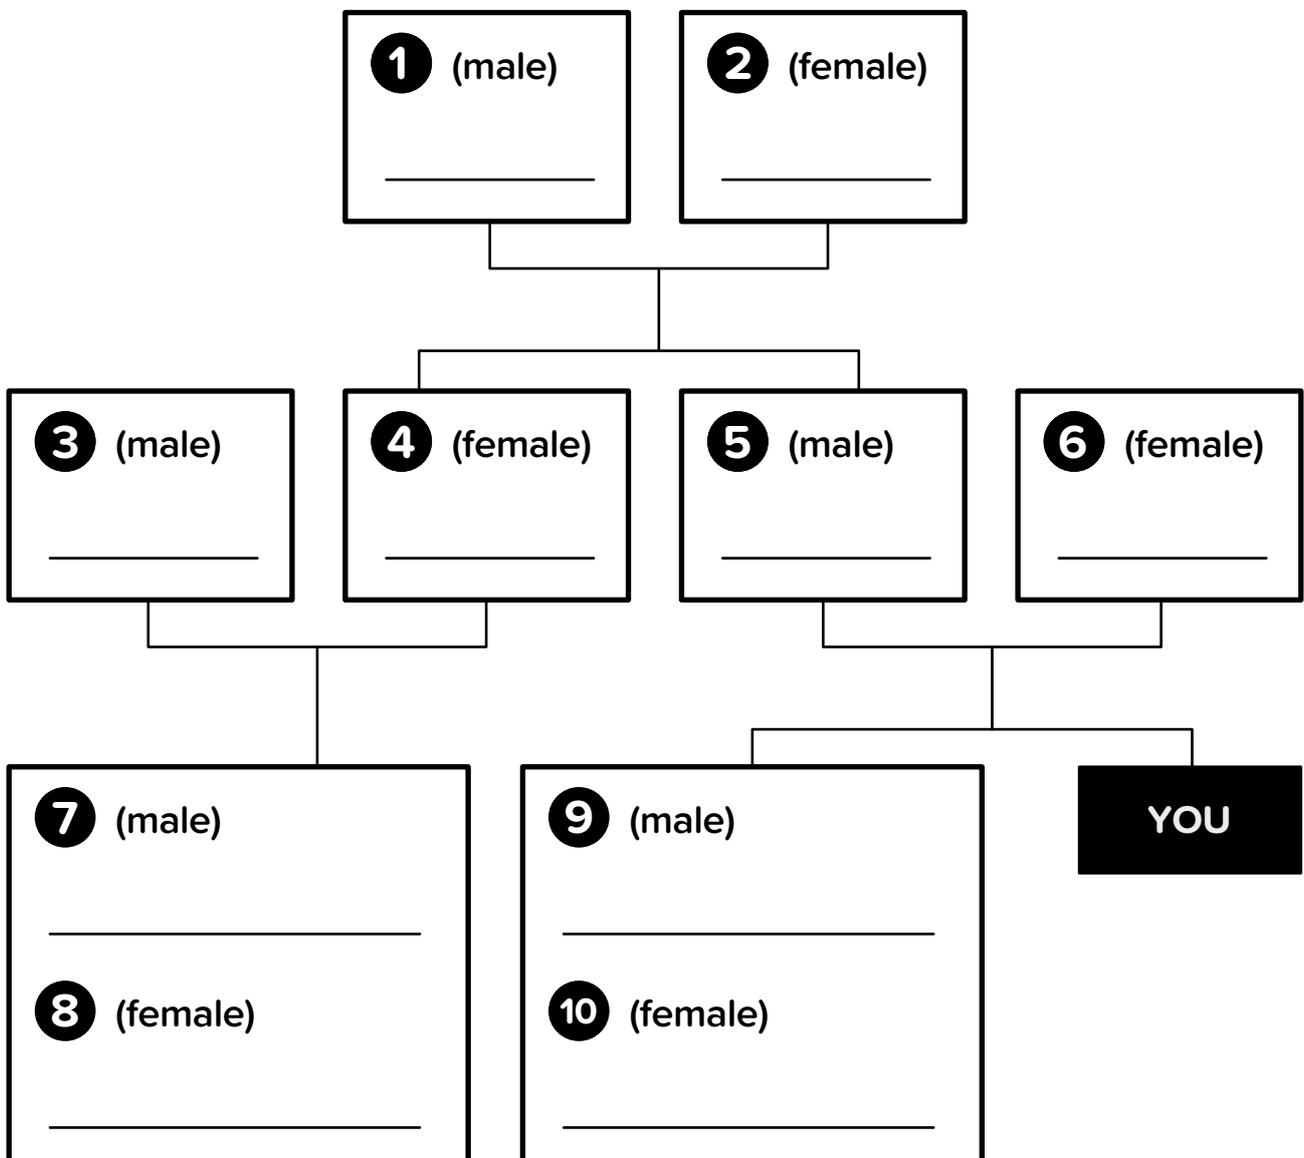

1. Family members
2. Identifying statements of truth and lies

AFTER-READING ACTIVITY

Filling in the family tree

DIRECTIONS: How many words for family do you know how to say in Spanish? Fill in the labels on the family tree in Spanish. For each numbered person, write what their relationship is to YOU.

Many of these words showed up in El enano saltarín, but others you'll need to look up.

AFTER-READING ACTIVITY

Famous Families

DIRECTIONS: In this game, try to fool your friends (or your teacher). See if they can identify which of your statements about celebrities are true and which are lies.

Here's how to play:

1. Translate these phrases from the story, El enano saltarín.

English	Translation
I think that is a lie!
That's ridiculous!
It's possible...
Yes!

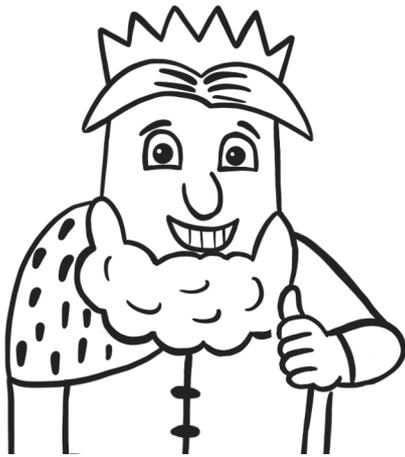

1. Fill in the chart below. In each row, write down two famous people. Then write down a sentence in Spanish saying how they are related. (Example: They are brothers; they are mother and daughter, they are husband and wife.) Some of them should be true, and some should be lies.
2. Swap your statements with another person. They should decide if it is true or a lie and fill in the final column with one of the Spanish phrases from the chart above.
3. Reveal your correct answers!

Person #1	Person #2	How are they related? (Answer in Spanish)	Partner's answer (Is it a lie? Is it true?)

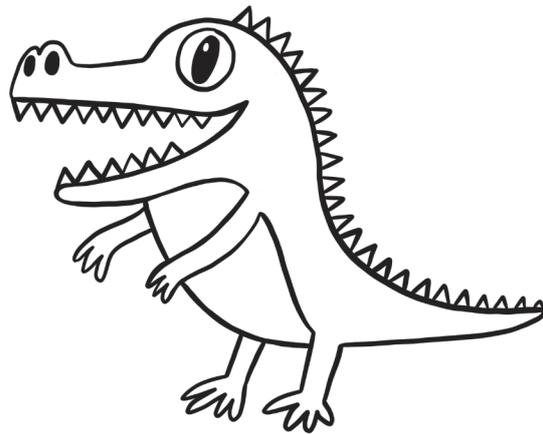

AFTER-READING ACTIVITY

All liars will be fed to the crocodiles!

DIRECTIONS: In El enano saltarín, there were a lot of characters telling lies, but there were also characters who told the truth. Read the story again in Spanish. As you read, find at least three true statements that the king would approve of, and write them in the chart. Find at least three liars that need to be fed to the crocodiles, and record their lies in the chart.

¡Es verdad!

¡Es mentira!

2.	2.

AFTER-READING ACTIVITY

Rumpelstiltskin's treasures

DIRECTIONS (Part 1): Do you remember all the kinds of jewelry that Sofía offers Rumpelstiltskin? Do you remember how to say each one in Spanish? Write each item of jewelry and translate it into Spanish. Then read the story again and check your answers.

DIRECTIONS (Part 2): It was pretty creepy that Rumpelstiltskin asked Sofía for her first-born child. What do you think he should have asked for instead?

If you could rewrite the story so that it happens in modern times, what three things would Rumpelstiltskin ask Sofía to give him in return for turning the hay into gold? Write each one in Spanish.
