

AFTER-READING ACTIVITY

A very bossy kingdom

DIRECTIONS (Part 1): Everyone in this kingdom is so bossy. They are always giving commands. Here are some commands from the story. First, underline the command form of each verb.

English	Spanish
Clean the kitchen!	¡Limpia la cocina!
Stand still!	¡Quédate quieta!
Don't go!	¡No te vayas!
Find the girl!	¡Encuentra a la chica!
Please come with me	Por favor, venga conmigo

DIRECTIONS (Part 2): Now listen to La Cenicienta again. When you hear these commands, stop and write the translation in Spanish.

English	Spanish
Come to the ball with us!
Sweep the hallway!
Cook our dinner!
Fetch her immediately
Miss, please look at me

DIRECTIONS (Part 3): Some commands are more polite than others. Do you see a difference? Put a star next to the polite commands on this page. Then use your language learning resources to research when you should use a polite (formal) command, and when you should use an informal command. Write which kind of command should be used in each situation below?

1. The stepsisters are talking to Cenicienta _____
2. Cenicienta is talking to the cat _____
3. The messenger is talking to Cenicienta's stepmother _____
