

Racial Equality

People who care most strongly about Racial Equality

Top Cause: Racial Equality

Percentage of the population 16-64 who said Racial Equality is one of the top 3 causes they care strongly about. In the USA, 11% or 22.7 million people said it was one of their top 3 causes. This data was collected in March 2020, and we will continue to monitor this cause as more waves of research are released.

Top AP DNA Segments

Top AP DNA Segments who said Racial Equality is one of the top 3 causes they care about.

Top Music Genres Enjoy Listening To

01

02

03

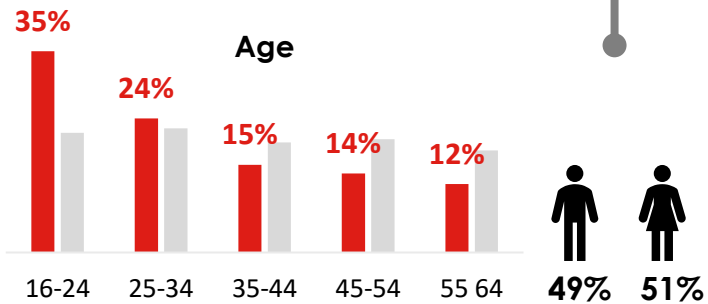

04

05

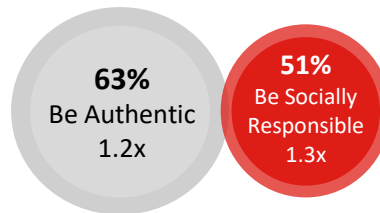

06

Demographics

In the USA, the issue is of greatest importance to young people.

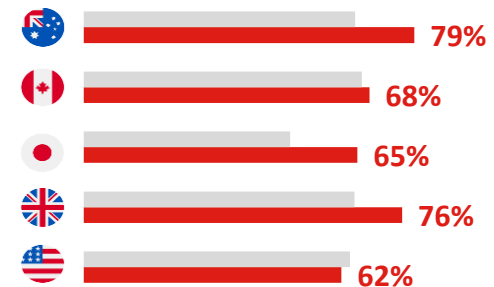

Brand Expectations

For people who care most about racial equality, they expect brands to be authentic and socially responsible. They will avoid brands who they believe are commercializing or profiting off the issue.

Interest in Music

The majority of people who consider Racial Equality one of their top causes are interested in Music. In the USA, 14 million people who consider Racial Equality one of their top causes are also interested in Music.