

Racial Equality

People who care most strongly about Racial Equality

Top Cause: Racial Equality

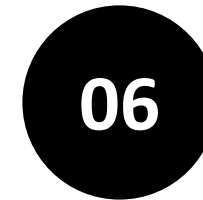

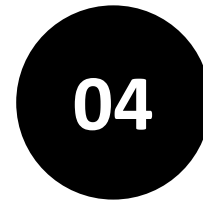

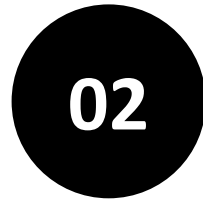

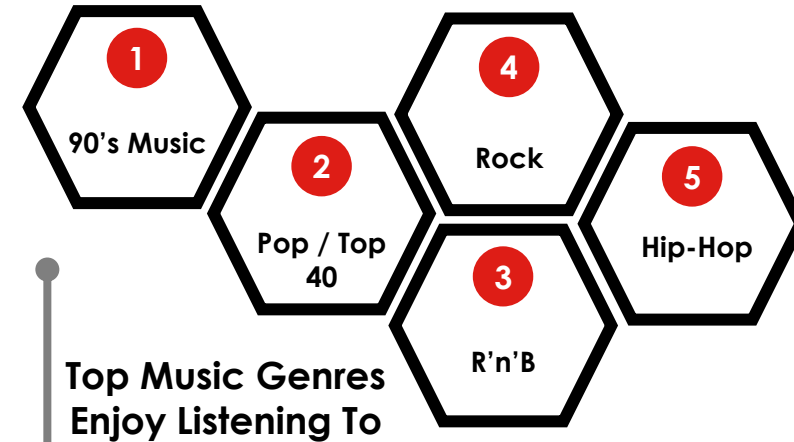

Percentage of the population 16-64 who said Racial Equality is one of the top 3 causes they care strongly about. In Japan, 4% of the population or 3.3 million people said it was one of their top 3 causes. This data was collected in March 2020, and we will continue to monitor this cause as more waves of research are released.

Top AP DNA Segments

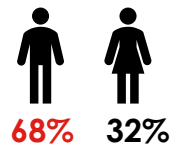

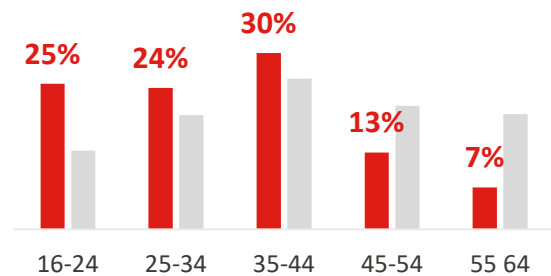

Top AP DNA Segments who said Racial Equality is one of the top causes they care about.

Demographics

In Japan, the issue is of greatest concern to people aged under 45. It skews male.

Age

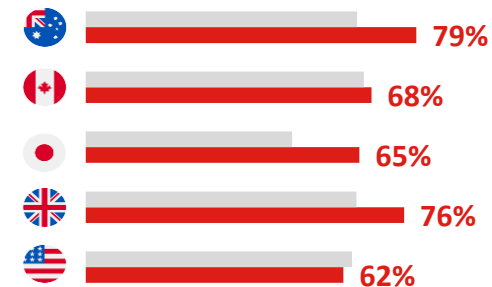

Brand Expectations

For people who care most about racial equality, they expect brands to be authentic and socially responsible. They will avoid brands who they believe are commercializing or profiting off the issue.

Interest in Music

The majority of people who consider Racial Equality one of their top causes are interested in Music. In Japan, 2.1 million people who consider Racial Equality one of their top causes are also interested in Music.