

Device Ownership in Japan

87% of internet users in Japan 16-64 own a smartphone. Predictably, the likelihood of not owning a smartphone increases with age – 4% of Gen Zs don't own one compared to 19% of Baby Boomers. The adoption of Smart Home Products has been slower in Japan compared to markets such as the US and the UK.

