ALLIANCE DEFENDING FREEDOM

MINISTRY ALLIANCE

PRACTICAL LEGAL HELP FOR CHRISTIAN MINISTRIES
SO YOU CAN FREELY MINISTER

UNSUSPECTING MINISTRIES HAVE BEEN SUED FOR SIMPLY LIVING OUT THEIR FAITH

Serving strangers. Ministering to fellow believers in Christ. Making a difference by being the hands and feet of Jesus to the world.

That's why you began serving at a Christian ministry in the first place. It's why you do what you do.

But the world continues to change, and the culture increasingly views ministries with distrust. Not only is the culture changing, but so are our governments and laws. State and local governments across the country are now questioning if the religious nature of your mission matters. This means areas of your ministry that are critical to your Christian identity are being challenged – like who you employ, and how and where you serve, to name a few. These realities can profoundly impact – even threaten – your ministry and your religious freedom.

Alliance Defending Freedom has been on the forefront of legal issues impacting the religious freedom of businesses, churches, nonprofits, and individuals for over 25 years. We have seen the acceleration of legal challenges that threaten the ability of Christians to freely live out their faith and share the Gospel.

We at Alliance Defending Freedom created ADF Ministry Alliance so your ministry can get the religious liberty legal help you need, when you need it.

If your mission and your rights are compromised due to religious freedom legal challenges, then we are no longer collectively free to live and share the Gospel as we are called.

With membership in ADF Ministry Alliance, you can prepare and protect your ministry. Join us as we stand together so our ministries and Gospel witness flourish.

Tree of Life Christian Schools v. City of Upper Arlington

When Tree of Life Christian Schools applied for a zoning permit for a vacant building, the City of Upper Arlington, Ohio, turned it down. Even though city zoning allows daycares and other similar uses in the same zoning district without a permit, this Christian school was barred from using the building it owns.

This school – with the help of ADF – challenged the city's rule. The government shouldn't be able to treat this Christian school like a second-class member of the public. We at ADF are helping to defend this school's rights.

New Hope Family Services v. Poole

New Hope Family Services is a faith-based adoption agency in New York. The New York State Office of Children and Family Services (OCFS) delivered it an ultimatum: submit to new standards that conflict with your religious beliefs or end your program that helps place children with loving adoptive parents.

ADF represents New Hope Family Services in a lawsuit seeking to protect the adoption ministry from being singled out, punished, or disfavored because of its religious beliefs.

By The Hand Club For Kids v. Illinois Department of Employment Security

By The Hand Club For Kids is a ministry of The Moody Church, qualifying as nontaxable since its creation in 2001. But the State of Illinois is challenging the religious tax exemption of this ministry to underprivileged children, claiming that it is not "operated primarily for religious purposes."

Illinois questions the religious purpose of By the Hand despite its overt Christian founding, identity, and mission. The ministry engages in unquestionably religious activities such as chapel services, Bible studies, discipleship, prayer, and worship. ADF continues to represent this Chicago-based ministry.

ADF MINISTRY ALLIANCE MEMBER BENEFITS

ADF Ministry Alliance is a legal membership that helps protect the rights of Christian nonprofits so they can continue to impact the world. Members play a critical role in ensuring religious freedom for ministries nationwide and receive the following benefits:

GOVERNING DOCUMENT REVIEW

Send your ministry bylaws, policies, employment documents, and more to ADF attorneys. We review them and help you implement proactive religious freedom protections. That way, you have thorough documents that can serve as positive evidence in the courtroom if needed.

ACCESS TO ATTORNEYS

Get direct answers from our attorneys whenever you have legal questions about your ministry's religious liberty. This access guides you through your legal options, so that you can have peace of mind when confronting legal issues and even media inquiries.

REPRESENTATION AND ADVOCACY

If the religious freedom of your ministry is challenged, we will represent it if necessary. Not only does membership provide advocacy for your ministry if needed, but it also ensures other ministries have access to representation. You can be confident of a strong ally in the courts, protecting your religious freedom.

Additional details on member benefits are provided on the Scope of Services page in this brochure.

Membership pricing is based on annual revenue. See pricing for your ministry on the attached application.

“ I have witnessed Alliance Defending Freedom’s significant efforts in protecting the freedom of religious organizations and individuals. Their Ministry Alliance initiative provides strategic assistance for ministries, allowing them to thrive and to be effective in their unique spheres of influence. In the times in which we live, their work is vitally needed. I am grateful for all they do.

STATEMENT OF FAITH

ADF Church Alliance members should be in general agreement and be able to certify that their church's statement of faith (or similar document) does not materially conflict with the following statement of faith and the Alliance Defending Freedom Doctrinal Distinctives.

Based on our adherence to the inspired, infallible, inerrant, and authoritative Word of God in Scripture, we profess with the Christian Church throughout time and around the world the faith expressed in the Apostles' Creed:

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.
I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting.
Amen.

Alliance Defending Freedom Doctrinal Distinctives

Also, based on this confession, we are committed to honoring God by obeying the two Greatest Commandments, loving God and loving neighbor, and based on that commitment and derived from the inspired, infallible, inerrant, and authoritative Word of God in Scripture, we profess the following as necessary for living the gospel:

We believe in the spiritual unity and equality of believers in our Lord Jesus Christ.

We believe that the Lordship of Christ requires us as disciples to seek to conform our actions, thoughts, and desires in obedience to Him.

We believe God creates each person with an immutable biological sex — male or female — that reflects the image and likeness of God.

We believe God designed marriage as a unique conjugal relationship joining one man and one woman in a single, exclusive, life-long union, and God intends sexual intimacy to occur within that relationship.

We believe God endows all human life with inherent dignity, and it must be respected and protected from conception to natural death.

We believe that God has endowed all humans with the natural, pre-political, and inalienable right of religious freedom to believe, pursue truth, and live within ordered liberty such that no political government may justly infringe upon it.

We believe that God, through His Son, Jesus Christ, calls all of us to deny ourselves, take up our cross, and follow Him and that, in exchange, He promises us abundant life.

ADF Ministry Alliance is not an insurance program, and Alliance Defending Freedom is not an insurance company. ADF will typically represent ADF Ministry Alliance members in all litigation related to protecting the religious liberty of the ministry. However, ADF cannot guarantee legal representation in every situation and does not provide casualty payments for a lawsuit. Any legal representation undertaken by ADF is without cost to ADF Ministry Alliance members.

Some ministry legal matters involve administrative tribunals such as zoning boards and tax agencies. ADF normally does not appear as legal counsel before administrative agencies or administrative tribunals. ADF will assist in finding local counsel for administrative phases of legal matters that fall within the ADF Ministry Alliance scope of services, but cannot guarantee that local counsel representation will be free of charge.

ADF does not provide legal representation for the following:

- Intra-ministry, inter-ministry, or denominational disputes;
- Allegations of child abuse or criminal prosecutions unrelated to religious liberty;
- Tax advice, tax audits, or investigations that do not relate to religious liberty;
- Start-up and filing requirements (e.g., 501(c)(3) applications, sales tax exemption applications, corporate filings);
- Advice regarding corporate structure or general liability issues not related to religious liberty;
- General advice regarding government contracts or grant agreements;
- Drafting business contracts such as rental agreements or vendor contracts;
- International legal matters or compliance with international law;
- Land use cases will generally only be approved if discrimination or unequal treatment is present.

ADF has the sole authority to determine whether a request for advice or representation falls within the scope of services offered.
