

Lighthouse Finance to Moderate Panel Discussion at Seafood Expo North America

NEW YORK, December 10, 2018 — Lighthouse Finance has been selected to moderate a panel discussion at the annual Seafood Expo North America conference, taking place in Boston early next year.

Titled “Seafood Financing: Challenges and Opportunities for the Year Ahead,” Lighthouse has gathered senior industry players from the corporate, equipment supplier, and investor perspective to offer their viewpoints on the current and short-to-medium term financing environment, with a focus on North America.

“Our panelists have been at the forefront in tackling the most significant challenges in seafood finance today, so it will be exciting to share war stories, lessons learned, and best practices for this rapidly expanding industry,” said Roy Høiås of Lighthouse Finance.

Confirmed participants include:

Per Grieg, CEO/Chairman, Grieg Seafood ASA

Yoav Dagan, VP of Business Development, AquaMoaf Aquaculture Technology

Amie Osborne, VP Commercial & Ag Lender, First Farmers Bank & Trust

Howard Tang, Managing Partner, Lighthouse Finance

Roy Høiås, CEO & Founder, Lighthouse Finance

The session is scheduled for March 17, 2019 from 3:30-5PM EST at the Boston Convention & Exhibition Center. Seafood Expo North America event registration information is available here.

About Lighthouse Finance

Lighthouse Finance is a global advisory firm that specializes in capital raising, asset finance and management across the seafood value chain. We represent established and early-stage clients across a wide spectrum of industry verticals including fisheries, hatcheries, integrated aquaculture operations, production and processing businesses. The Group has offices in New York, Oslo, and Copenhagen. www.lighthousefinance.net

Contact

Courtney Bosh

courtney@lighthousefinance.net