

PRODUCTION ASSISTANT INTERN - THE WHY FOUNDATION - SPRING 2023

THE WHY Foundation

THE WHY Foundation is a non-profit media organisation that supports sustainable development by securing free access to reliable information for millions of people around the world. We produce and distribute documentary films about human rights, democracy, justice and equality. Our documentaries are used in schools, community centres, public cinemas and brought to citizens at large through our growing network of more than 70 public service television stations around the world.

Why Stories

As a production assistant intern, you will be working primarily with the Why Stories project. Why Stories is a curated series of critically acclaimed documentaries that we dub into local languages and donate to underserved communities.

Your tasks will include:

- assisting the producers in expanding the reach of the project by connecting to new broadcasters and outreach partners
- screening documentaries and assisting in the curation of the upcoming season of Why Stories
- supporting the producers with deliverables and securing a smooth operation of the project
- smaller administrative and research tasks

About you

You have a strong interest in documentary films and keep up-to-date with current affairs and political developments.

It's important that you:

- have excellent communication skills in English
- are highly organized with administrative capabilities
- are comfortable liaising with multiple stakeholders independently

Application

The Internship takes place at our office space in Gothersgade, situated above Cinemateket. We offer free lunch and a great view over The King's Garden. The internship runs from January 2023 to July 2023, preferably full time. The Internship is unpaid and on a voluntary basis.

For more information or to apply, please send you CV and a short cover letter to intern@thewhy.dk

Deadline: 21/11/2022 at 12PM.
