Welcome to ST MARK'S BASSENDEAN

*Discovering and demonstrating Jesus' love

Di-stressed

The remedy for emotional stress is spiritual distress. Jesus commanded, "do not be anxious about your life" (Matt 6:25). On the other hand, he testified, "I have a baptism to be baptized with, and how great is my distress until it is accomplished!" (Luke 12:50).

He was not anxious about life's daily needs because he was totally consumed by a passion to complete the work of God. Similarly, at the tomb of Lazarus, he "was deeply moved in his spirit and greatly troubled" (John 11:33). The Greek here can be used of the "snorting" of a war horse going into battle. Inwardly, Jesus' felt profoundly motivated to defeat the power of evil by raising Lazarus from death.

Paul likewise is a moved man. "Christ's love leaves us no choice/controls us/compels us/urges us on" (2 Cor 5:14). The strength of the Lord's commitment to him seizes his heart and controls his motives. Shamefully, as a young preacher I preached fiery sermons on our need for "total commitment". This left a lot of people feeling bad, or at least "lukewarm" (Rev 3:16). The truth is that since Christ was totally committed to us we can rest by faith in his saving efforts. This frees us from the tyranny of our own emotions; but it certainly doesn't leave us emotionally unmoved.

Paul teaches that a state of distress should govern the whole Christian life. "in view of the present distress.... let those who have wives live as though they had none, 30 and those who mourn as though they were not mourning, and those who rejoice as though they were not rejoicing, and those who buy as though they had no goods, 31 and those who deal with the world as though they had no dealings.... For the present form of this world is passing away." (1 Cor 7:26, 29-31).

Knowing the world around us is doomed under God's judgement we must not become strongly attached to material-temporal things. It's when we are deeply attached to perishing things that we are overcome by anxieties. Ask the Lord for a heavenly perspective; it will give you a sense of true proportion and many of these daily stresses will be taken away. In its place you will however discover the distresses of the kingdom of God; and you will be moved like never before to do the works of God.

The Prayer of the Week March 3

Almighty God you have given your only Son to be for us both a sacrifice for sin, and also an example of godly life: give us grace that we may always thankfully receive the benefits of his sacrifice and also daily follow the blessed steps of his most holy life, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

The Prayer of the Week March 10

Almighty and everlasting God, you hate nothing that you have made, and you forgive the sins of all who are penitent: create and make in us new and contrite hearts, that we worthily lamenting our sins, and acknowledging our wretchedness, may obtain of you, the God of all mercy, perfect remission and forgiveness; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen
