The Prayer of the Week

Lord our God, by your Holy Spirit write your commandments on our hearts and grant us the wisdom and power of the cross, so that, cleansed from greed and selfishness, we may become a living temple of your love; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

"Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust consume and where thieves break in and steal; but store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust consumes and where thieves do not break in and steal. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

Matt 6.19

Missionaries to China 2

This personal experience of salvation was a new element in religious life of the time. Most clergy thought baptism was a sufficient mark of salvation. Wesley's experience changed his ministry dramatically. There was a new fire in his preaching and a new power.

As for the change in people, Wesley wrote, "Many persons in London, in Bristol, in York, and in various parts, both of England and Ireland, have experienced so deep and universal a change as it had not before entered into their hearts to conceive, After a deep conviction of inbred sin ..., they have been so filled with faith and love (and generally in a moment) that sin vanished, and they found from that time no pride, anger, desire, or unbelief. they could rejoice evermore, pray without ceasing and in everything give thanks. Now, ... it is a glorious work of God - such a work as, considering both the depth and extent of it, we never saw in these kingdoms before."

Wesley's work was awesome. It is estimated during his 52 years of ministry he travelled about 4,000 miles each year, and preached more than 40,000 sermons. he wrote tracts, published sermons, wrote materials for his classes - over 400 publications in his lifetime.

As the century wore on, more and more clergy of the Church of England were brought to an evangelical renewal and a new preaching of the old reformation doctrines. This third stream existed alongside Wesley and Whitfield. There were some strong bonds of fellowship, but the parish clergy affected by the renewal were less inclined to follow the methodist way in practice. Some stayed in their parishes, others moved around as itinerant preachers. The group included many godly parish clergy, including famous names such as John Newton, the former slave trader; Charles Simeon who had a long ministry at Cambridge amongst ordinands and undergraduates; Henry and John Venn at Clapham; William Cowper who wrote hymns at Olney along with Newton.

It was from within the Church of England that the Eclectic Society arose. Formed in 1783 by John Newton, Richard Cecil, Henry Foster and Eli Bates, the group included at various times, Charles Simeon, the great Cambridge preacher and evangelical leader, Josiah Pratt, the first secretary of the Church Missionary Society, John Venn. It was instrumental in forming the Church Missionary Society and earlier had posed the question, "What is the best method for planting the gospel in Botany Bay?". A question which led them to lobby for an evangelical chaplain on the First Fleet. Richard Johnson was appointed and another evangelical, Samuel Marsden followed.

WELCOME

Welcome to St Mark's. We are an active Anglican church of all ages and walks of life, seeking to grow in the likeness of Christ and welcome new members and visitors

Please relax and enjoy the worship and fellowship. Are you new to this church? Please make yourself known to one of the ministers or service leaders. You may also like to complete and return the Welcome Form.

The Order of Service may be followed on the screen.

Children are welcome. Ministries to children (Godly Play) take place during the service in term time.

The toilets are located in the church hall.

The Holy Communion is open to all believers. Visitors are welcome to receive Communion if they normally take it in their own church. Gluten free bread is available. Please ask the minister when you come to communion. If you would like some people to pray for you, our Prayer Team is available during Communion at the east end of the church, near the stained glass window, or they can pray for you where you sit.

After the service please join us for tea or coffee and a chat in the hall.

Mission Project Giving

Each month the Church Council sets aside 10% of our giving, and divides it equally between our 6 Mission Projects. You are able to give on top of this amount by earmarking gifts to any of the Mission Groups. See Jenny for more info. Or one of the Reps if you would like to know more about a particular Mission. One reason we have Mission Reps is because we want people to know about the Missions we contribute to, and to pray and support them in other ways.

Car Parking

Our general informal arrangement at the moment is to leave the hard-stand area of the carpark near the church for those who are less mobile.
