The Prayer of the Week

Almighty God, whose Son Jesus Christ is the resurrection and the life of all who put their trust in him: raise us we pray, from the death of sin to the life of righteousness; that we may ever seek the things which are above, where he reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

I am the First and the Last.

I am the Living One;

I was dead, and now look,

I am alive for ever and ever!

And I hold the keys

of death and Hades.

Revelation 1.17

A resurrection people

"A resurrection people" could be a good description of Christians. Jesus thought our God was "not the God of the dead but of the living, for to him all are alive." (Lk 20.38)

It reminds me of the text given at my Confirmation from Philipians 1.21 "For to me, to live is Christ ...".

I think they left out the next part of the verse when I was confirmed "... and to die is gain." Perhaps dying was not thought a great motivator for a bunch of 14 year olds.

But dying has different meanings. We can't start the Christian life without dying - to ourselves, to the world, and to moral and ethical supervisors such as the Law of Moses. Only the person brought to a new life in Christ can live for Christ. A new beginning must be made. A new creation, a new start all over again. A new Spirit must direct the affairs of the new person.

We could paraphrase the saying as "... for to God you are all alive." That, apparently, is God's opinion. Although in the text it seems to be talking about those who have died (in one sense). Re-assuring for those of us who have died already (in another sense).

That must mean God thinks his life is alive in us.

How could you tell? I suppose God would start speaking through us. He might start working through us. We find him speaking to us. It could be quite unsettling. A tussle might result from time to time. A little arm wrestle as to who was boss. Some might even shout and complain to God. Tell him to mind his own business. Leave us alone.

The more gentle (passive) types might just fold their arms and walk away. Keep their mouths shut and their hands in their pockets.

But that is not normal. When God's life is in us, we've had it. We are his. His kind love never leaves us. And his persistent power keeps on working in us and through us so that we really are alive to him.

Dale

MISSION PROJECT UPDATE Information for your Prayers Scripture Union

"When my children go on an SU camp, there is a noticeable step up in their faith."

"I learnt that Jesus wants to be my Captain and I want him to be."

Quotes from children on 2019 summer camps.

Through Scripture Union WA young people are meeting Jesus, following Him and growing in reading the Bible and in leadership.

Scripture Union is a worldwide movement of Christians passionate about seeing the lives of Australia's children and youth transformed by Jesus, through the outdoors, Christian community, authentic relationships and fun.

It is a challenging and exciting time to do Christian ministry in Australia. As our country changes SUWA is strengthening its focus on taking the gospel to young Western Australians where they are. Camping and holiday missions are strong, but they want to find new ways of sharing the good news with children, young people and their families. To do this they are seeking to rebuild arts and schools ministry. SU has also begun building ministry partnerships with churches, to strengthen their witness, discipleship and leadership among young people.

SUWA runs with the help of financial contributors, volunteers and prayer. Thank you St Mark's Bassendean for helping West Australians 'Live it with Spirit'
