The Prayer of the Week

O God, your Son made himself known to his disciples in the breaking of bread: open the eyes of our faith, that we may see him in his redeeming work; who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth.... For from his fullness we have all received, grace upon grace. For the law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. No one has ever seen God; the only God, who is at the Father's side, he has made him known.
John 1.14

Seeing God

As Spirit God can never be accessed by normal sight. "Seeing is believing." Is completely out of place when it comes to divine things. Yet, by his common grace the Lord does make himself visible to us sinners. "Through everything God made, they can clearly see his invisible qualities—his eternal power and divine nature. So they have no excuse for not knowing God." (Rom 1:20). Beautiful as the world may be, people never turn from their sins because of what they see in nature, in fact they have always made idols out of what the creation offers. Jesus came to change all this.

"No one has ever seen God; the only God, who is at the Father's side, he has made him known." (John 1:18). Looking at Jesus, people saw "the image of the invisible God" (Col 1:15). Remember what so called doubting Thomas exclaimed when he saw Christ raised from the dead, "My Lord and my God!" (John 20:28). God can be seen, "in the face of Jesus Christ" (2 Cor 4:6). When Jesus comes again we will all see him in this way. But how about seeing God now?

Hebrews tell us that Moses "endured as seeing him who is invisible." (11:27). This is a real seeing, not through the limits of the natural eye, but a vision by faith that can continuously expand as we grow in our faith. Much as Jesus said, "Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God." (Matt 5:6).

As far as church life goes, when Barnabas heard of all the wonderful things that were happening in the new church in Antioch, "he came and saw the grace of God" (Acts 11:23). According to Paul, spiritual gifts are "manifestations of the Spirit" (1 Cor 12:7). You can actually see God's Holy Spirit working through miracles, healings, prophecy and so on. Even if an outsider comes into a church meeting where the Lord is supernaturally revealing things, "they will fall down and worship God, exclaiming, "God is really among you!" (1 Cor 14:25).

The prospect of people "seeing God" in our church meetings is super exciting. But for such excitement to be real we would be wise to petition the Lord for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit. This would be a good thing to do throughout the week, and especially as we come together on a Sunday.

John

MISSION PROJECT UPDATE Information for your Prayers Scripture Union

"When my children go on an SU camp, there is a noticeable step up in their faith."

"I learnt that Jesus wants to be my Captain and I want him to be."

Quotes from children on 2019 summer camps.

Through Scripture Union WA young people are meeting Jesus, following Him and growing in reading the Bible and in leadership.

Scripture Union is a worldwide movement of Christians passionate about seeing the lives of Australia's children and youth transformed by Jesus, through the outdoors, Christian community, authentic relationships and fun.

It is a challenging and exciting time to do Christian ministry in Australia. As our country changes SUWA is strengthening its focus on taking the gospel to young Western Australians where they are. Camping and holiday missions are strong, but they want to find new ways of sharing the good news with children, young people and their families. To do this they are seeking to rebuild arts and schools ministry. SU has also begun building ministry partnerships with churches, to strengthen their witness, discipleship and leadership among young people.

SUWA runs with the help of financial contributors, volunteers and prayer. Thank you St Mark's Bassendean for helping West Australians 'Live it with Spirit'
