Life in God

Given we didn't get in until past midnight Saturday morning, and I have just been told that my original article is non-existent, I have come up with something faithful to the biblical picture of divine self-exposure. “Jesus, 6 who, though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, 7 but emptied himself, by taking the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of men. 8 And being found in human form, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. 9 Therefore God has highly exalted him and bestowed on him the name that is above every name, 10 so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, 11 and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.” (Phil 2:6-11) Walking in prayer past the home of an impoverished indigenous family, I was strangely reminded of an event I witnessed years ago in remote WA. A middle-aged white woman gave testimony that included rolling around in the fine red dirt to show how degraded she once was as an alcoholic. Through her, Jesus, in his unlimited humility, was communicating to the very depressed First Australians of how he has taken their poverty to bring them into his glory (2 Cor 8:9). After this I was moved to thank God by name for all who I would see that day as I sensed that each person was “fearfully and wonderfully made” (Ps 139:14 cf. Acts 1:15). Made by the ever-abiding Word who is Christ. As I “toil and struggle” (Col 1:29) to listen to the Word who upholds all things (Heb 1:3), I am increasing sensitive to the fact that all people are created, sustained, and directed towards the climax and End of all things who is the Son of God (Eph 1:9-10). All your life experiences will be consummated in the measureless splendours of the eternal glory of God in Christ. As a young drinker all the future seemed dark, empty, and depressing. In Jesus the future is glorious light, “the glory of God gives the city light, and its lamp is the Lamb” (Rev 21:23 cf. 1 Pet 2:9). How lowly are you willing to serve others that Christ might be revealed.

John

Continued Prayer for our New Minister

Gracious God, we rejoice as we thank you for answering our prayers for a new Minister. Father, please cause this to be a time of healing, unity, and renewal in our church. Please continue to grant John great power to point us to Jesus. Lord, teach us to draw closer to Jesus and trust Him as the true head of the Church.

Merciful God, grant Mark, Kate and their three young children peace about leaving their communities and assurance of your great faithfulness and steadfast love as they embark on a new chapter of their lives.

We pray for those tasked with finding a suitable house for their family, that you would provide everything that is needed. Lord, fill our hearts with peace by your Spirit and do not let us be anxious about the future. Give us generous hearts to persevere in prayer for one another, our leaders, and our church for Jesus Christ's sake, Amen.

MISSION PROJECT UPDATE Information for your Prayers

BCA – Bush Church Aid

The following outline has been the work of the BCA for over 100 years.

'God has worked in the small group of people who trudged through the rain on that May night in 1919 to form the society... God has worked through the hundreds of people who have gone out to remote places to live in tents, CWA Halls, or blistering hot corrugated iron houses... God has worked with those persons who had the endurance to travel miles and miles, just to minister to one person... God has worked with hundreds of people who have sat in offices typing, filing, paying bills, producing prayer notes or cutting out stamps... God has worked in the people who have dropped their pennies and sixpences and fifty cent coins into the money boxes... God has worked in the people who decided they may have retired from paid work, but not from ministry, and take to the roads in their vans... God has worked in the people who wrote Sunday School lessons, and ran youth groups with a handful of kids in a little church hall...' (Excerpts from Never Too Far; Never Too Few p.136 by Robyn Powell).

In God's plan to restore the world to a relationship with him, through the work of the Lord Jesus Christ, the Bush Church Aid Society has played a part. Have you thought of a way to support BCA so that God can work with you through this organisation?
